C. T. BAUER COLLEGE of BUSINESS

TO LEAD AND SUCCEED, GLOBALLY

The C. T. Bauer College of Business is one of the nation's leading and most comprehensive business schools. Located in the nation's fourth largest city, the college is uniquely suited to build relationships between our students and the business community. The college serves as a resource for industry professionals, helping organizations build talent and grow strategically. Making the most of a city of dynamic business leaders and a faculty of world-class experts, UH Bauer is at the top of its game. We operate on the principle that our students — a remarkably diverse group from 139 countries — are our most valued asset. Our graduates fuel the Houston economy, by finding jobs in their chosen fields and by creating jobs through entrepreneurial ventures and start-ups.

“BUSINESS AS USUAL” ISN'T OUR STYLE

It's all here at Bauer: the nation's No. 1 undergraduate entrepreneurship program; a student-managed, private-investment portfolio called The Cougar Fund; our Global Energy Management program and Global Energy MBA. Corporate America has noticed, too. Approximately 3,000 companies work with the Rockwell Career Center to recruit UH Bauer students for jobs and internships, and more than 440 corporate partners invest in Bauer.

More C-suite executives graduated from Bauer than any other school in Houston.

LEADING COMMITMENT

We have built a faculty of traditional academicians and former executives and entrepreneurs, providing a learning environment that extends beyond the classroom and into industry. Our college offers a program portfolio the business community can tap into, with specialty offerings for our students in energy, entrepreneurship, sales, investment, business consulting, real estate and more. In these classes, we frequently pair students with companies to put learning into practice.

Our efforts have not gone without notice. Bauer is consistently ranked at the top in national surveys of the leading business programs. U.S. News & World Report places both our undergraduate and MBA programs in the top 50 among publics; and BusinessWeek includes Bauer in the top 50 among publics.
