UNIVERSITY SERVICES JOB FAIR 2009

Houston, July 31, 2009

Are you in need of a job? Well UH University Services will be hosting a Job Fair Wednesday, August 5, 2009 in the University Center, Cougar Den from 9 A.M.-2 P.M. Representatives from UH Dining Services, the UH Bookstore, University Copy Center and the Office of University Services will be on site to talk to you about employment opportunities and conduct on site interviews.

The Office of University Services will be recruiting students to be part of one of our marketing focus teams that will work on coordinating, planning, and implementing of various programs in Dining, Parking and Transportation, Sustainability, and Tradition events.

* Dining Services: Help the Dining Marketing Team and Food Services Advisory Committee in advertising events and programs that market campus dining enhancements.

* Parking and Transportation: Help promote commuter solutions on campus and host educational programs for students to understand the parking vision of the future.

* Sustainability: Work with EcoReps and UH Sustainability Task Force on promoting green initiatives on campus.

* Traditions: Work on events that promote University Services and university traditions.

“There will be lots of events intended to inform the UH community about all the exciting things happening on campus particularly in dining, parking and transportation, sustainability and UH traditions,” said Maria Honey, Auxiliary Customer Service Coordinator. “We are looking for enthusiastic students who are high energy and would enjoy engaging their fellow Cougars.”

Come ready to make it happen. There will be on site interviews so come dressed in business casual attire.

For more information on the job fair, visit www.uh.edu/us or call 713-743-5723.
