HOUSING OFFICES RELOCATE TO MOODY TOWERS

Houston, November 3, 2011 – Residential Life and Housing made Moody Towers their new home this week, moving its offices from the first floor of Oberholtzer Hall. This relocation will centralize housing operations offices to the ground floor of Moody Towers in order to better serve the university community.

Starting on November 1, the UH community can address any on-campus housing questions, concerns or inquiries at the new centralized offices at Moody Towers. This office handles the administrative matters for housing. The housing office located in the Welcome Center Garage will continue to receive all requests for housing tours from visitors.

Although the address has changed, the phone number and email address will remain the same. The contact information for the new Residential Life and Housing office is:
