Central Plant- Site Fencing Changes

Houston, Texas, May 4, 2012- On Friday, May 11, 2012, the construction fencing at the Central Plant site will be modified to allow for pedestrian access. North-south access will return to the sidewalk between the Technology Building and the construction trailer. East-west access between the Central Plant and the MD Anderson Library will be opened at the northwest corner of the Library near the loading dock. Please see below map for affected areas.

For more information on this project please contact Kelly Buehler, Senior Project Manager, at kbuehler@Central.UH.EDU or 713-743-9637.
