FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ginger Walker
Executive Administration Assistant
713-743-0583
gkwalker@uh.edu

LATEST CERT CLASS GETS UNDER WAY AT UH

Houston, Oct. 4 – The Emergency Management Bureau has another class of students, faculty and staff training to become Campus Emergency Response Team (CERT) members for the University of Houston.

The classes began Friday, Sept. 28, and will continue for eight weeks. Students will learn how to put out small fires, make a “go kit,” prepare a plan for their family when evacuating and how to give simple first aid.

The class has over 30 students attending to learn more about making plans and protecting themselves from harm.

To learn more about the City of Houston’s CERT program visit http://www.piersystem.com/go/doc/2747/1484075
Contact Kelly Boysen at krbysen@central.uh.edu for more information on the CERT program for the University of Houston.

About the University of Houston

The University of Houston is a comprehensive national research institution serving the globally competitive Houston and Gulf Coast Region by providing world-class faculty, experiential learning and strategic industry partnerships. UH serves more than 38,500 students in the nation’s fourth-largest city, located in the most ethnically and culturally diverse region of the country.