UH DINING SERVICES ADJUSTS TO SUMMER CONSTRUCTION TO CONTINUE SERVICE TO UH COMMUNITY

Houston, May 8, 2012 – UH’s food service will undergo several changes this summer in order to accommodate the UH community during construction on campus.

The majority of the University Center’s food service locations will shut down at 2 p.m. on Friday, May 11 due to upcoming renovations to the building. Throughout the summer and continuing into the fall, food trucks will be stationed outside of the University Center. The Waffle Bus, a food truck owned and operated by a UH graduate, will begin service on June 4. UH Dining Services is currently working to bring two more trucks to the campus this summer and provide five total during the fall semester.

Real Food on Campus in Oberholtzer Hall closed its doors on Friday, May 4 and will remain closed throughout the summer. The Fresh Food Company will be open during summer sessions.

For updates on dining hours of operation, visit www.uh.edu/dining. For summer hours of operation for other retail locations on campus, click here. For more information on The Waffle Bus, visit http://www.thewafflebus.com/.
