The University of Houston Office of Sustainability invites you to participate in the annual RecycleMania competition this February and March! Participate to help UH rise to the top of the leaderboard!

How can I get involved in UH’s RecycleMania efforts?

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle!
The more waste that UH campus members divert from the landfill, the higher UH will be ranked in the nationwide competition.

Engage in the RecycleMania 3R actions challenge.
On Twitter, use the UH designated hashtag #Houston and @RecycleManiacs and submit your 3R action with a keyword for that week’s theme (reduce, reuse, recycle or zero waste)!

Attend the weekly on-campus events for a chance to win a Kindle Fire HD!
See calendar on reverse side for more information.

Compete in the UH competition for small groups: What’s the big idea?*
This UH RecycleMania competition is for groups of 2 to 9 students, faculty and/or staff. Teams will propose an idea to the Office of Sustainability and Solid Waste and Recycling to improve recycling or reduce waste on campus. Prize bags will be awarded to the winning team.

Compete in the UH competition for large groups: Turning thoughts into action.*
This UH RecycleMania competition is for groups of 10 or more students, faculty and/or staff who will actively work to improve waste diversion rates on campus. The winning team will win a catering credit of $200.

*Submissions should be sent to sustainability@uh.edu by 11:30 p.m. on Friday, March 13 and include a group name, team member names and UH affiliations.

Visit www.uh.edu/recyclemania for more information on the events and contests.
