

Standardized Technical Solutions

1. Point of sale terminal procured through the system's credit card processor.
2. Hosted application provided by the system's credit card processor.
3. Merchant web site using the system's credit card processor's technology to authenticate a transaction routed through the centralized server maintained by UH Information Technology.