THE ART OF recycling

A campus project to raise awareness about recycling while having some fun!

Brought to you by

University Services

INFORMATION

ENTRY and RULES:

Entries must be turned in to the University Center, Aegean Room 82 by 5pm on Wednesday, November 18, 2009.

All artwork will be displayed on Thursday, November 19th in the University Center Arbor. Students will have the opportunity to vote for their favorite in each category.

On Saturday, November 21st we will announce and recognize the winners during the "Go Coogs! Go Green!" game at Robertson Stadium.

Each entry must be submitted by only one person.

An entry form must be completed for each piece of art entered. Only one category may be chosen for each entry.

All entries become the property of Coca-Cola and University of Houston and are not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items.

If entry is deemed in poor taste, it will be eliminated from the competition.

Eligibility: Any currently enrolled student, faculty or staff of the University of Houston is eligible to participate. Purchase of Coke products is not required to win. Official student ID is required to collect prizes.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

All art must be inspired by or include Coca-Cola products. Entrants are encouraged to use other recycled materials, if necessary, to complete their projects.

PROGRAM DETAILS

In an effort to raise campus awareness about recycling, and to have a little fun, Coca-Cola® and the University of Houston are teaming up for "The Art of Recycling Program." Students are invited to create works of art using empty bottles and cans of Coca-Cola products as inspiration for their design.

The four prize categories offer students of all artistic abilities an opportunity to participate, and compete for an chance to WIN one of four $250 Gift Cards to www.GiftCertificates.com.

Winners will be recognized at Robertson Stadium on Saturday, November 21st during the "Go Coogs! Go Green!" game.
