UH MOMENT FEATURES RECYCLING THIS WEEK ON PBS

Houston, May 17, 2010 – This week, PBS will air a UH Moment on the Recycling program at the University of Houston.

The segment will feature Johnnie King, Supervisor of Recycling and Solid Waste for Plant Operations, as well as Jonas Chin, Program Coordinator for University Services.

The segment will air in the evenings this week. The start times listed below are approximate, due to programming, but the UH Moment will run during the break.

Mondays:
12:30 pm In the break following “A Place of Our Own”
9:00 pm In the break following “American Experience” or “American Experience” substitute

Tuesdays:
9:00 pm In the break following “Frontline” or “Frontline” substitute

Wednesdays:
12:30 pm In the break following “A Place of Our Own”

Fridays:
12:30 pm In the break following “A Place of Our Own”
7:30 pm In the break following “Houston 8” (moves to 19:28 in May 2010)

Saturdays:
3:30 pm In the break following “Texas Parks and Wildlife”

Be sure to keep an eye out for this feature this week to learn about the ways UH is striving to be a sustainable campus.

For more information about the Green UH initiative, visit www.uh.edu/green.
About the University of Houston

The University of Houston, Texas' premier metropolitan research and teaching institution, is home to more than 40 research centers and institutes and sponsors more than 300 partnerships with corporate, civic and governmental entities. UH, the most diverse research university in the country, stands at the forefront of education, research and service with more than 35,000 students.