VI. GUIDELINES, STANDARDS FOR EVALUATING AND RESOLVING POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST SITUATIONS

- A. Ethics violations include, but are not limited to, bribery, the existence of a conflict of commitment or the existence of a conflict of interest. With the exception of certain transportation, lodging and meals, an ethics violation may also include acceptance of honorarium where the employee solicits, accepts or agrees to accept an honorarium in consideration for services that the employee would not have been requested to provide but for the employee's official position.
- B. Ethics violations are to be reported to the university Ethics Coordinator in Human Resources. The Executive Director of Human Resources or designee will be the university's Ethics Coordinator.
- C. The Ethics Coordinator will make a determination as to the severity of the ethics violation and determine the appropriate university administrative unit(s) that may be a part of the investigation. Investigation of an alleged ethics violation may involve the Internal Auditing Department, University of Houston Department of Public Safety (UHDPS), and/or the General Counsel. The employee's supervisor and the appropriate vice president will be notified.

When a staff employee is involved, the investigation shall involve Human Resources and the appropriate vice president. When a faculty member is involved, the investigation shall include input from the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost. When sponsored projects are involved, the investigation shall include the Vice President for Research and Technology Transfer and the Policy on Conflict of Interest for Academic Staff will be followed.

- D. The Ethics Coordinator notifies the investigative unit(s) (i.e., Internal Auditor, UHDPS, and/or Human Resources, and the appropriate vice presidents) of the reported violation and submits the allegations to the unit(s) for review and investigation.

- E. Confidentiality of the information and employee(s) involved in the investigation will be of utmost importance to insure proper adjudication of the allegations.
- F. The investigative unit will render its recommendation and/or report to the Ethics Coordinator
- G. The Ethics Coordinator reviews the investigative report. Every attempt will be made to resolve internal ethical violations at the lowest level of administrative review. If, however, a reasonable solution cannot be reached; the Ethics Coordinator will appoint the Ethics Review Panel to make a final recommendation for disposition of the issue based upon review the alleged ethical violation the report and/or recommendation of the investigative unit, and any additional information the Ethics Review Panel deems necessary. .
- H. Recommendations from the investigative unit and/or the Ethics Review Panel may be reviewed by the General Counsel and the appropriate vice president where the internal ethical violation was not resolved at a lower level of administrative review.
- I. Based upon the findings of the ethics review process, appropriate administrative action will be taken to insure that the investigated ethics violation is corrected.
- J. A final report of the investigation, findings, and recommended corrective action is then submitted through administrative channels to the State Ethics Commission.

VII. PROCESS FOR REQUESTING "ETHICS OPINION" FROM THE ETHICS COORDINATOR AND/OR THE ETHICS REVIEW PANEL

In any case, the responsible manager may contact the university Ethics Coordinator for direction and assistance in resolving a conflict situation.

Upon review, the Ethics Coordinator may recommend that the Ethics Review Panel be convened to review the situation and make a recommendation. In such a case, the situation must be put in writing and involve the signatures of the dean or director and the responsible vice president, as well as Human Resources.
