One of the key benefits of CEO is the ability to be listed in the membership directory for business and social networking purposes.

Please carefully double-check the information you choose to provide for the directory listing and either sign below or send a confirmatory e-mail to acknowledge your understanding of and consent to the following terms:

I consent to the release/display of any information I transmit/post for the membership directory to other CEO members, and agree to release and hold harmless the University of Houston System, and its governing board, officers, employees, representatives and agents from any and all liability directly or indirectly related to the publication and/or distribution of the membership directory, as well as from liability for the use, misuse, or further dissemination of directory information by other members or third parties.

I also understand and agree that as a CEO member, I will obtain special access to the directory information of other CEO contributors and agree to utilize that information prudently.
