Thank you to all who volunteered to help with Hoops for Hearts:

UH Charter School appreciates your help; we would not be able to hold events like this without your support. A big thanks to Ms. Henley for taking the lead in organizing this annual event.

Go Texan Day:

We will celebrate Go Texan Day on Friday, February 23rd. Traditionally UH Charter School classes hold a chili cook-off competition on Go Texan Day. We will do it again this year. Your child’s teacher will be reaching out for a great recipe and a few good cooks! Students are encouraged to dress in their best western wear. The event begins at 8:30 with the chili cook-off competition and then the judges select a best dressed cowgirl and cowboy from each class. An assembly is held at 10:45 to announce the chili winners and the best dressed students.

School Calendar for 2018-2019 school year:

The proposed school calendar will be presented to the PAC at the scheduled meeting on Friday, March 23, 2018. The calendars will be shared and input will be asked for from our school community. The calendar will be presented to the school board for approval at the April board meeting.

Food Collection for UH:

According to research, approximately 30% of college students find themselves forced to choose between food and educational expenses during the year. To address this situation the College of Education is creating a food pantry for COE students who may need just a little help. If you can donate non-perishable food items UHCS will be accepting them in the front office. The following are some suggested items for donation: Microwavable individual size soups (ex: Campbell’s Soup on the go), Canned spaghetti/ravioli, Microwavable meals (ex: Hormel Completes or Chef Boyardee individual microwavable ravioli, Kraft mac-n-cheese), Ramen Noodles, Oatmeal (instant), Peanut Butter, Cereal Bars/Protein Bars, Tuna (like the ones that come with crackers already made), Beef Jerky / Turkey Jerky, Applesauce/Canned Fruit (light syrup or in own syrup), Shampoo / Conditioner, Body Soap, Small packages of laundry detergent
