Zineb Sedira: Lighthouse in the Sea of Time
Friday, October 4th
6-7:00 pm

- Blaffer Art Museum Director and Chief Curator Claudia Schmuckli and Director of Human Resources Sandy Coltharp would like to invite you to this exhibition, which features photographs and videos by Zineb Sedira showing two lighthouses in Algeria, built by the French and maintained by the Algerian people following the end of the Algerian War for Independence in 1962. Enveloped by the Mediterranean Sea, the lighthouses become historical sites of struggle over nationhood, asylum, cultural identity, and language.

- This invitation is part of a collaboration between Blaffer Art Museum, UH’s Work/Life Program, and UH’s Human Resources as they team up to offer all faculty and staff complimentary memberships to Blaffer.

- We look forward to seeing you! For a full list of free programs and events visit www.blafferartmuseum.org.

Rsvp’s encouraged at rsvpBlaffer@uh.edu

---

Pier Paolo Pasolini: “Trilogy of Life” Film Screenings
October 4–6

Sponsored by
The Museum of Fine Arts Houston (MFAH) in conjunction with Rice Cinema

- Each fall, the MFAH hosts a celebration of Italian cinema. These retrospectives feature restored 35mm prints from the archive of Rome's legendary Cinecittà, presented in partnership with the Italian Consulate General of Houston, the Institute of Italian Culture in Los Angeles, and generous local sponsors and community partners.

• For the eighth annual event in 2013, the MFAH joins a national U.S. tour to reconsider the singular vision of Pier Paolo Pasolini (1922–1975). All films are directed by Pasolini and presented in Italian with English subtitles.

• See complete calendar here!

Undergraduate Research Day 2013
Thursday, October 10th
4 -6 p.m.
Rockwell Pavilion and the Honors College

• Undergraduate Research Day 2013 will showcase the achievements of 130 student researchers from across the campus through poster presentations. Support your friends and peers, and learn more about the research YOU can get involved in at UH. And since it is a celebration—enjoy ice cream sundaes provided by the Office of Undergraduate Research.

Study Abroad in Germany!

• Spring 2014 semester-long Leipzig study abroad program

• Undergraduate students from all majors are eligible. Graduate students with relevant research projects are most welcome to apply.

• More Information can be found at the German and German Area Studies Website.