

Creating Written and Visual Products III

	3	2	1
Appearance	The project has been carefully completed, it looks neat and is organized	The project has less than 10 errors – eg spelling and grammar mistakes	The project is not organized and contains more than 10 grammar mistakes and appears sloppy
Content	The project demonstrates how events in Texas, Houston, and the country affected their physician	The project was able to tie some of the events in Houston, Texas, and the country with the experiences of their physician	The project did not demonstrate how events in Texas, Houston, and the country affected their physician
Accuracy	The project contains all accurate information	The project contains some accurate information but has less than 5 mistakes	The project contains little accurate information and has more than 5 mistakes