

Miao Wang, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Marquette University

Miao Wang received her bachelor's degree in International Economics in 1998 from the University of International Relations in Beijing, China. After working a year in the Turkish embassy to China, She then pursued her graduate education in the U.S. and received her Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Oregon in 2003.

Miao Wang's teaching and research interests include international trade, foreign direct investment, economic growth, and econometrics. She has published research articles in academic journals including Economic Inquiry, Review of International Economics, Journal of Macroeconomics, Applied Economics, Atlantic Economic Journal and has also contributed to research collections published by the Institute for International Economics at Washington D.C.