Lesson Outlines:

Context of the Sub-Unit:

- Chicago public schools have a school year of 40 weeks. Every five weeks is a progress report cycle in the official grading system. For convenience, all Chinese courses are broken down into 5-week units.
- This featured unit is a sub-unit of one 5-week unit. It covers a week (two block schedule classes) of lesson planning, emphasizing how to develop speaking proficiency via interaction with comprehensive assessment.
- The Theme of the Unit: 芝加哥与北京
- Week 1: 大都市的休闲生活
  Learning Focus: Introduction to the new unit; final project requirements and rubrics; identify interesting spots in Chicago; review topics related to city life.

- Week 2: 芝加哥
  Learning Focus: Four-word expressions, such as 数一数二, 五花八门, and compound sentences.

- Week 3: 北京
  Learning Focus: Online resources and authentic reading.

- Week 4: 芝加哥与北京——谈不同、找相同
  Learning Focus: Comparison and oral assessment.

  Learning Focus: Individual project and assessment.

The Profiled Week 4 Sub-Unit Lesson Outlines
(2 days of classes; 102 minutes per class)

Talking about differences and similarities of the two cities 北京 - 芝加哥——谈不同、找相同

Day 1: Let’s do it together! 大家合作

Day 2: Let’s see who does it better! 竞赛

Learning Objectives:

Students will be able to:

Day 1

- Work together to talk about characteristics and personal views of Beijing and Chicago (interpersonal);
- Work together to compare Compare characteristics and personal views of Beijing and Chicago (interpersonal);
- Ask about characteristics and personal views of Beijing and Chicago (interpersonal);
- Suggest possible questions when making comparisons between cities (interpersonal).
Day 2

- Collaborate with a partner to prepare for a presentation on given topics (interpersonal);
- State characteristics and one’s opinion of the selected topics of city life (presentational);
- Compare the selected topics on city life (presentational);
- Request/challenge other speakers to elaborate on certain assertions (interpersonal).

Teaching Focus:
Comprehensive use of all previously learned sentence patterns and vocabulary

Speaking:
- Express logically developed and well-thought-out ideas (presentational)
- Ask spontaneous and intelligent questions (interpersonal)

Grammar (Review/Recycle/Spiral):
- Compound sentences (Students identified nine compound sentences to use; see attached Course Material 1)
- Comparisons (Students identified four ways to compare; see attached Course Material 2)
- Interrogative sentences
- Word order of a statement:
  Subject + (Time/Place/Manner) + Action: 老年人早上在公园跟朋友一起打太极拳。

Vocabulary (Comprehensive Use):
- Four-word expressions (四字成语) (See attached Course Material 3)
- Vocabulary (See attached Course Material 4)

Learning Difficulties:
- Word order: Due to possible interference from their native language (English), students may make mistakes with basic Chinese word order.

- For compound sentences, students may make mistakes with 要是⋯⋯就⋯⋯ by putting a subject after 就: *要是有时间，就芝加哥人去湖边。Also with 先⋯⋯然后⋯⋯: *先我去北京然后去上海。

Of all the four comparison sentence patterns (see attached Course Material 2), students make the most mistakes with the 比 sentence: *北京人比芝加哥人很多得多。To prevent this kind of mistake from happening, two simple steps are taken:

1. Avoid translating – When students are given preparation time before delivering an oral report, only individual words are allowed as talking points;

2. Prompt with a mental alert – Write the sentence pattern on the board: if a student uses it incorrectly, point at the visual on the blackboard so that student may immediately self-correct.

Teaching Difficulties:

- Keeping a large number of students engaged when an individual student is speaking;

- Teaching students at various levels of proficiency in one class.

Teaching Materials and Resources:

- Printed handouts (See Course Materials 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 attached at the end of this lesson plan)

- Authentic materials:
  - http://www.tiantanpark.com/cn/a
  - Photos of Chicago and Beijing

- Stacks of colored paper cards, markers, and worksheets

- PowerPoint slides

- Internet access (optional)

- Chinese Essentials Book 1
Instructional Strategies:

To address development of coherent speech:
The key to any coherent discourse begins with clear thinking. A solid speech, regardless of depth or sophistication, contains a beginning, middle, and an end. To help students talk coherently, teachers rely on designing coherent instructions:

1. Selecting Instructional Goals:
   Presentational and Interpersonal Communication: The topic of this lesson is to compare two cities. Each student is expected to talk about one aspect of the comparison at paragraph length for 1-2 minutes. Then the audience must spontaneously ask three questions to interact with their fellow speakers during the course of this event.
   Major Linguistic Components: Four-word expressions (四字成语), four ways of comparison, and compound sentences have been developed during the previous lessons and emphasized as the required elements in the assessment rubrics.

2. Scaffolding Learning:
   It is important that new vocabulary is introduced based on the students’ needs, and through use; that new sentence patterns are developed one at a time and accumulated to express more sophisticated ideas; that new information is integrated through a variety of means; and that new inquiries are expanded upon in statements.

3. Engaging All Students:
   To further enhance differentiated instruction, an extended list of vocabulary is provided.
   Certain students’ weaknesses or difficulties are to be identified and problems solved on the spot and right after class.
   Many language tasks/projects are designed to include cooperative learning, where individual roles and obligations are clearly defined, recorded, and assessed.

4. Involving Students in Assessment:
   The required elements and rubrics are communicated to the students as a rule of classroom practice. The students participate in making the rubrics, and they provide the language they feel strongly about.

5. Developing Critical Thinking:
   Chicago Public Schools’ new teacher evaluation system emphasizes students asking “good” questions in class. To break the stereotype that students in world language classrooms with limited language skills only use “baby talk”, world language teachers need to rationalize and secure critical thinking skills in our practice.

Teacher modeling is crucial. A teacher in the language classroom needs to not only model the use of the target language to initiate inquiries, but also use questions to press students to think critically for deeper meanings. To start, a simple question “为 什 么” or “为 什 么 不” will serve the purpose. Also, always guide the students to think out of the box: “还有什么可能性？还有什么其他的选择？” Furthermore, acknowledge, and thus encourage, good questions at all times.

This is the reason why there is a built-in session of the teacher modeling question forms in the warm-up session and a “required but spontaneous Q&A” after each oral presentation.

The byproduct of this design (required free Q&A) is that students are fully engaged when others are presenting.

Day 1

Learning Objectives:

Students will be able to:

- Work together to talk about characteristics and personal views of Beijing and Chicago (interpersonal);
- Work together to compare characteristics and personal views of Beijing and Chicago (interpersonal);
- Ask about characteristics and personal views of Beijing and Chicago (interpersonal);
- Suggest possible questions when making comparisons between cities (interpersonal).
Instructional Steps:

Part I – Housekeeping: Daily Routine (5 minutes)

1. Teacher takes attendance while students practice characters either on the board or at their desks to prepare for daily dictation.

2. Formative Assessment – Dictation (10 minutes)

   1) Students write their names and the date in Chinese on the dictation sheet.

   2) Teacher says 10 phrases selected from the reading by the students from the previous class: 忙碌, 松, 热闹, 温馨, 聚, 丰富, 免费, 优惠, and students write them down. It will be helpful that teacher repeats the phrases in sentences as they appear in the reading:

   人们在那儿散步、跑步、踢毽子、跳舞、打拳、唱歌、唱戏。他们三三两两或成群结队地一起活动，慢中有快、动中有静，既忙碌又轻松，既热闹又温馨。为什么这样说呢？因为人们每天聚在一起，除了锻炼，还有社交。身体好了，心情愉快了，生活也丰富了。天坛不是一个免费的公园，去那儿要买票。不过月票、季票和年票都不太贵，老年人还有优惠。

   3) Students swap papers and quickly check each other’s writing, circling mistakes and signing their names at the bottom.

   4) All papers are collected and submitted to teacher.

   (Practicing the characters or using new vocabulary in written homework serves as part of the homework. Also, an extra phrase will oftentimes be selected as a bonus point for grading as an incentive to practice more characters.)

3. Review – Check Homework (10 minutes)

   (The previous day’s homework was to write about Beijing. Integrating new vocabulary and compound sentences is a requirement.)

   1) Teacher asks students if there are questions concerning the homework.

   2) Students read a neighbor’s written homework and select a good sentence or something they would like to share with the class.

Sample Sentences:
Part II – Main Content: Comparing Two Cities

Pre-Activity 1 (10 minutes)

1. Teacher-student (T-S) and student-student (S-S) interaction (Interpersonal)

   Purpose: To brainstorm topics of comparison.

   我们现在知道了芝加哥和北京都是非常大、特别有意思的城市。谁能说一说这两个城市有哪些地方差不多？又有哪些地方不一样呢？比如说：

   Students name the topics for comparison, and teacher projects class notes onto the big screen. If topics from previous learning are overlooked, teacher gives hints: 芝加哥的东西贵还是北京的东西贵呢？谁知道？

2. Summarize the notes and list 12 topics:

   ① 城市 (人口、地理等) ② 天气 ③ 交通 ④ 活动 ⑤ 物价 ⑥ 公园 ⑦ 名胜古迹 ⑧ 历史 ⑨ 名人 ⑩ 运动 ⑪ 动物 ⑫ 饭馆和食品
   (Class notes are to be posted at the end of day on Google Drive to share with the whole class.)

Pre-Activity 2 (10 minutes)

Teacher-student (T-S) and student-student (S-S) interaction (Interactive)

Purposes:

- To establish parameters of the language task;
- To set to work collaboratively on content of the comparison;
- To provide a sample to scaffold learning.

1. Organize students into groups of 3-4; each group has a computer to work with.
2. Communicate format, requirements, and rubrics for the oral presentation due next class.

3. Teacher discusses with the class briefly but very clearly the format and required grammatical elements of the oral presentation. Teacher also invites students to review the oral presentation rubrics that have been established for Chinese 3. (Show quick visual now and post details online after class.)

Teaching Chinese as a Second Language: Curriculum Design & Instruction

Activity 1 (15 minutes)

For Learning Objectives 1 and 2

Purpose: To organize ideas and lay out talking points.

1. Students sit together in groups. Each group is given four topics to work with. Students follow the sample to create talking points for each topic (interpersonal);

2. Students post group-generated talking points on a class Google document to share (interpersonal and presentational);

3. The whole class reviews the final document and comments on it (interpersonal).

Activity 2 (15 minutes)

For Learning Objectives 3 and 4

Purpose: To review sentence patterns and brainstorm questions.

Students sit in groups as before. Teacher asks each group to create two lists: learned compound sentences and four ways of comparisons (interpersonal);

Each group generates 10 possible questions on various topics for comparison, then shares them with the class (interpersonal).

Post-Activity (15 minutes)

Purpose: To assess correct use of the sentence patterns and questions.

1. Review and reinforce: Teacher shows the required compound sentences (Course Material 1) and four ways of comparison chart (Course Material 2) on the projector so that students can revise their lists (interpretive);

2. Assessment: Teacher asks the students which patterns tend to be problematic; students give examples of correct use of the sentences (interpretive and presentational);

3. Teacher draws students’ attention to:
   “要是······， S 就 Verb” ( 就 can only be placed before a verb, not a subject);
   “S 先 Verb，然后 Verb” ( 先 can only be placed after a subject not before);
   “A 比 B Adjective by How Much ( 很 cannot appear before the adjective)”;

14
“A 跟 B 一样 (Adjective)” (Use “跟 / 和”, not “比”).

4. Assessment: Teacher asks each student to share with the class one question that they think is the best (presentational).

Summarize and give homework assignments (5 minutes)

Teacher does the following:

1. He/She repeats performance assessment requirements and rubrics;

2. He/She reminds students what all course materials and supporting documents are, and where to find them;

3. He/She gives homework assignment: Ask students to prepare for oral presentation and assessment.
   By this time, teacher has communicated with students at least three times the tasks that they must perform on their own with sufficient support. If that is not enough, ask students to verbalize one or more times.

Part III: Communication after Class

Teacher makes sure that all students have access to the course materials and related documents for learning after school. Besides printed materials, teacher may also post all course materials, class notes, and homework assignments online. If any students do not have Internet access, a hard copy has to be provided.

Homework:

Prepare to talk about 12 topics about Beijing and Chicago. Your presentation will be for two minutes on one of the 12 topics, chosen at random. You will also improvise two questions in total during the interactive part of the presentation. Your speech must include use of all four categories of comparison patterns, some four-word expressions, and some compound sentences. Refer to the postings on the Google Drive “Chinese 3/compare 2 cities” folder for your presentation.

Part II - Main Content: Comparing Two Cities

Warm-up Activity 1 (10 minutes)

For Learning Objective 1

Purpose: Students prepare for oral presentation with support from a partner (interpersonal).

Instructional Procedures:

1. Teacher prepares a basket in which there are folded slips that bear the 12 topics for today’s comparison presentation. There are 2-3 slips with the same topics and a total number of slips equal to the number of the students in class.

2. List of the 12 topics and the order for presentation:

   ① 城市(人口、地理等) ② 天气 ③ 交通 ④ 活动 ⑤ 物价 ⑥ 公园
   ⑦ 名胜古迹 ⑧ 历史 ⑨ 名人 ⑩ 运动 ⑪ 动物 ⑫ 饭馆和食品

3. Students come into the classroom, draw a topic at random, and are automatically paired with another student who happens to pick the same topic. The two students work together to prepare for the oral presentation.

4. While students are working together, teacher writes the four ways of comparison on the blackboard as a visual reminder.

Warm-up Activity 2 (2 minutes)

Purpose: Teacher models the Q&A to scaffold the oral presentations.

- Teacher emphasizes that asking relevant questions is also part of today’s assessment. Each student is required to improvise two questions. 每人必须问两个问题。

- Tips on how to ask good questions: 怎么问问题？

  1. 注意听。
  2. 问有意思的问题。可以问的问题有很多，比如：为什么你觉得北京没有芝加哥现代化？你是怎么知道的？对这个问题你有什么看法？

Main Activity (70 minutes)

For Learning Objectives 2, 3, 4
Purpose: To assess students’ speaking performance.

Teacher-student (T-S) and student-student (S-S) interaction (interactive and presentational)

1. Students take turns talking for two minutes about the topic they picked, then ask two relevant questions during on the spot Q&A sessions.

2. Teacher serves as the time manager and occasional grammar reminder, but only when the “比” sentence is stumbled on. Usually, if students make a mistake, teacher points at the sentence pattern demonstrated on the blackboard to draw attention, and students will correct themselves immediately.

3. Teacher assesses each presentation and interaction with quick notes or check marks on the rubrics.

4. Teacher pays full attention to all student speakers, uses eye contact and facial expressions to show agreement and encouragement during the whole process, and expresses emotions through body language, short comments such as “很好！有意思！是吗？”, laughter, etc., in order to make these presentations and interactions a true communicative experience for everyone.

Sample Presentation and Exchanges:

Student A:

Talking Points:
- 历史长短
- 城市现状
- 历史故事
- 历史人物
- 我的看法

Sample narration:

今天我要比较的题目是历史。这个题目很难。你们知道美国的历史不太长，只有二百多年，可是中国的特别特别长，几千年。中国的历史长得多得多得多得多。因为美国的历史短，芝加哥的历史也短。因为中国的长，北京的历史也长。芝加哥不是美国的首都。北京不但不是中国的首都，而且是中国第二大城市，可是以前不是。芝加哥数一数二的最有名的历史故事是芝加哥的大火。北京最有名的历史故事五花八门，
Teaching Chinese as a Second Language: Curriculum Design & Instruction

可是常常在天安门。芝加哥有名的历史人是林肯，还有奥巴马。北京有名的历史人我不太知道，Chairman Mao？Jet Li？虽然芝加哥的历史没有北京的长，可是我觉得芝加哥的历史比北京的有意思。

Q & A

Student B: 什么？为什么你说芝加哥的历史比北京的有意思？可是芝加哥历史太短了。

Student A: 因为我家住在芝加哥，我爱芝加哥。

Student B: 那不应该是原因。

Student A: 好吧。因为我了解芝加哥所以我觉得芝加哥有意思。我不了解北京。

Student C: 为什么你说Jet Li是北京有名的历史人？他不是历史人。

Teacher: 历史人物。Jet Li算不上一个历史人物。

Student A: Jet Li可能不是历史人物，可是很多美国人知道他。

Teacher: 非常好，谢谢，下一个。

Post-Activity (5 minutes)

Purpose: To summarize today’s lesson and connect with the next sub-unit.

Summarize and Give Homework Assignment (5 minutes)

Teacher does the following:

1. He/She makes general comments and generously appraises what students have done well;

2. He/She draws attention via projector to guiding questions and writing rubrics of Final Unit Project;

3. He/She reminds students what and where to find all course materials and supporting documents;

4. He/She gives homework assignment: Ask students to work on written draft (handwritten or typed) by answering questions.
Part III: Communication after Class

Teacher makes sure that all students have access to the course materials and related documents for learning after school. Besides printed materials, teacher may also post all course materials, class notes, and homework assignments online. If any students do not have Internet access, a hard copy has to be provided.

美丽的城市——芝加哥

芝加哥是美国中西部首屈一指的大城市。那里有全国数一数二的博物馆、科学馆和天文台，最有名的是风景如画的密歇根湖。

在湖边，你会看到三五成群的人们：有的跑步，有的骑自行车，有的打球，夏天还有许多人游泳。

如果你喜欢逛街和买东西，密歇根大道不花八门的商品更是不可错过。在这里，你每天可以看到车水马龙的街道和从四面八方来的游客，他们在店里七嘴八舌地讨价还价，非常热闹。

要是你有兴趣爬上 Sears Tower，你可以试试看。不过你得用上九牛二虎之力，站在上面的时候，你可能害怕得手脚发软，心里七上八下的，完全六神无主了。

虽然芝加哥不是一个十全十美的城市，但它却是一个多姿多彩、多元化的美丽城市。

芝加哥是一个大城市，在美国第三大城市，在美国的中西部。不在美国的东部，也不在西部。

芝加哥不是美国的首都。（美国的首都是华盛顿。）

芝加哥地区有五百万人，人很多，人口多元化。

芝加哥是一个非常重要的国际城市。政治、经济、文化和教育都很发达。

芝加哥的历史不长，只有几百年。但是芝加哥非常漂亮，也非常现代化，还有很多有趣的去处。

芝加哥有很多免费对外开放的公园，其中最方便去的就是密歇根湖边。

北京是中国的首都，在中国的北方，是中国第二大城市。

北京现在的常住人口差不多有两千二百万。

北京是一个非常重要的国际城市，是中国的政治、文化和教育中心。

北京是一个古老的城市，有三千多年的历史，所以北京有很多名胜古迹。

北京是一个非常漂亮的城市。除了著名的故宫、颐和园以外，还有很多其他的皇家公园，比如天坛、地坛、日坛、月坛等。

北京现在也是一个特别现代化的城市。

傅老师是在北京出生、在北京长大的。傅老师的父母现在还住在北京。

天坛是古代皇帝祭天的地方。北京的天坛离市中心不太远，现在是一个很大的公园。一年到头，从早到晚，天坛都有许许多多的游客，有的是从全国各地来参观的，有的是从世界各国来游览的。但是天坛的早上是一天中最有意思、最热闹的时刻。

每天天一亮，就有很多人去天坛锻炼身体，多数
是老年人。人们在那儿散步、跑步、踢毽子、跳舞、打拳、唱歌、唱戏。他们三三两两或者成群结队地活动，慢中有快、动中有静，既忙碌又轻松，既热闹又温馨。为什么这样说呢？因为人们每天聚在一起，交了不少朋友，除了锻炼，还有社交。身体好了，心情愉快了，生活也丰富了。

天坛不是一个免费的公园，去那儿要买票。不过月票、季票和年票都不太贵，老年人还有优惠。

- A list of key vocabulary (Co-reference: see the Chinese text below)
- Integrated Chinese Level 2 Part 2 by Yuehua Liu and Tao-chung Yao (Lesson 18)
- 《中国历史常识》“中国第一位皇帝——秦始皇” by 国务院侨务办公室 / 中国海外交流协会，高等教育出版社
Instructional Strategies:

Set-up Stage (10 minutes)

1. Ask students warm-up questions such as:

   1) How far back does the history of China go? 中国历史有多长？

   2) What do you know about the Great Wall? 你听说过长城吗？

   3) Do you know any important people in Chinese history? 你知道中国历史上的要人吗？

   These questions can be in Chinese or English. The purpose is to get students interested and engaged. At this point, students might not have enough vocabulary to share their knowledge of the topic.

2. Show pictures/slides of the Great Wall. Each student says one sentence about it. They can repeat what is already said if they do not have anything new to add or do not know what to say. The teacher can start with:

   ![Image of Great Wall sentences]

   Teacher can model one or two sentences, and then ask each student to say one sentence. Depending on the class size, students may take turns and say one or more sentences. If students have difficulty thinking of sentences, teacher can give them a hint by asking questions about the Great Wall. If possible, teacher can assign homework the previous day, asking students to do research on the Great Wall.
Comprehensible Instructional Input (20 minutes)

1. Based on the Chinese language text below, share facts about the Great Wall with students. The following questions serve as advance organizers:

   1) 长城是什么时候修建的？
   2) 长城是谁修建的？
   3) 谁把长城连接起来了？
   4) 为什么修长城？
   5) 修长城用了多长时间？用了多少人力？死了多少人？

   Teacher can ask students to share their knowledge of the Great Wall. After the introduction to the Great Wall, teacher starts the presentation on Qin Shihuang.

2. Introduce Qin Shihuang to students. Teacher starts the presentation by asking:

   1) 谁是秦始皇？
   2) 谁听说过秦始皇？

   Teacher’s presentation about Qin Shihuang includes the following:

   1) Give students a brief history of 战国七雄 and show them a map of 战国七雄 using Google Maps.
   2) Introduce Qin Shihuang PPT (Google Images)
      Teacher can find pictures on Google Images such as: http://china-mike.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/03/chinese-characters-writing-evolution.gif to give students a visual aid to understand why Qin Shihuang had to do what he did.

Guided Practice (20 minutes)

1. Give students a copy of the vocabulary list. The list can be as-is; ask students to look up definitions on their own after class, or the teacher can give the pinyin and definitions depending on time and students’ language proficiency. If time is an issue or most students are non-heritage, provide the definitions and pinyin. Tell students when the vocabulary quiz will be and how they will be tested.

2. In groups, have students study vocabulary together. Make sure they know the meaning of all the words, and know how to pronounce the bold-faced words.
Vocabulary:

秦始皇 秦国 公元前 通过 战国 七雄 强国 灭 统一 统治 称为 巩固 在 …方面 政治 设立 郡县制 划分 直接 任免 统管 经济 度量衡 标准 货物 长度 容量 重量 货币 促进 交流 车轨 运输 文化 下令 种植 烧 批评 活埋 横书 坑儒 军事 打败 修筑 安定 保护 暴君 残暴 产生 不良

3. Show the PPT about Qin Shihuang again. One slide at a time, groups of students describe in Chinese the information presented in the slides.

4. Independent practice and assessment: Show the PPT of Qin Shihuang and ask individual students to say one or two sentences about Qin Shihuang and his contributions.

Independent Practice

Homework: Read 中国第一位皇帝——秦始皇 and answer the comprehension questions below. (This reading sample was simplified from an article in Common Knowledge about Chinese History《中国历史常识》published by 高等教育出版社)

中国第一位皇帝——秦始皇

公元前 770 年秦国只是一个弱小，后来变得越来越强大，成为一个强国。秦王嬴政用了十年的时间，先后消灭了六个国家，在公元前 221 年统一了中国。

秦王希望能永远统治中国，称自己为“始皇帝”，历史上称他为“秦始皇”。

秦国统一中国后，做了很多巩固统一的事情。

首先，在政治方面，秦始皇把全国划分为 36 郡，郡下面设县。秦始皇直接任免每个郡的郡守，每个县的县令，用这样的方法来统一管理全国。

在经济方面，秦始皇首先统一了度量衡。以前各国的度量衡都不一样。秦始皇把全国的度量衡改成同一个标准。人们在购买货物时，在长度、容量和重量等方面都用同样的标准。秦始皇还统一了货币。人们用同样的货币买卖东西，促进了各个地方的经济交流。另外，秦始皇还统一了车轨，加快了货物的运输与交流。
在文化方面，秦始皇统一了文字。以前每个地方都有自己的文字。秦始皇统一了中国以后，因为各个地方使用的文字不同造成文化交流上的很多不便，所以秦始皇下令统一文字，促进了文化交流。不过在文化方面，秦始皇也做了一些坏事。他统一中国以后很怕有人反对他的统治，于是除了医药、种植等方面的书籍以外，把其他的书都烧了。后来有些读书人批评秦始皇的一些做法，秦始皇就活埋了四百多名读书人。烧书和活埋读书人这两件事在中国历史上叫作“焚书坑儒”。

在军事方面，秦始皇打败了匈奴，修筑了长城，安定了北方，保护了统一后的中国。

秦始皇统一了中国，是中国第一个皇帝。他在历史上有很重要的作用。但秦始皇又是一个暴君，他的残暴统治也对历史产生了不良影响。

Comprehension Questions

1. Who is Qin Shihuang?
2. In terms of the political system, what did Qin Shihuang do?
3. In terms of the economy, what did Qin Shihuang do?
4. Why is it so important to have the same money?
5. What did Qin Shihuang do to protect unified China?

Note: These questions will be answered by students in English first (interpretive). After practice reading, teacher asks the questions again in Chinese, and students are expected to answer them in Chinese (interpersonal).

   2) Look for requests: Teacher leads students to focus on linguistic clues such as 能不能⋯⋯?
   3) Look for meaning via language forms (the underlined sentences below) by asking students questions such as 李文和谁好久没有联系了？老师让学生做什么？, etc.

你好！

好久没有和你联系了。你学习怎么样？忙不忙？我们现在在历史课上学对人类文明有影响的人物。老师让我们选一个历史名人，做一个报告，哪个国家的都可以。我想选一个中国历史名人介绍给我的同学们。听说你在学中国历史。能不能给我推荐一个人？还有，你对怎样在班上做好一个报告有什么建议？

希望能很快收到你的建议。谢谢！

2. Writing skill practice:

1) Clearly specify the requirements for the reply. Provide students with the following list of points to which they are required to respond:

- Greet and tell Li Wen about your school work.
- Recommend an important person in Chinese history.
- Explain why this person is recommended.
- Suggest how to make a good PPT presentation.

2) Discuss linguistic organizers and connectors for students to use. The list may include as follows:

既然……，那就 V……
你看……怎么样？
之所以……，是因为……
就我所知，……

3) Provide a sample for students to discuss or critique. It is necessary to use a couple of student samples to critique before or after they finish the task. The advantage of showing the sample before the task is that students know what will be expected.

Activity 2 (25 minutes)

Purpose: To further practice oral presentational skills on a significant person in Chinese history.

Prepare a cultural presentation: Qin Shihuang

When students practice recording cultural presentations, the following points may be useful for pedagogical consideration:

1. There is no time limit for students’ first practice recording.
2. Allow students to make several recordings and submit the one which satisfies them.
3. Ask a couple of students to present their work in person to the class. Teacher and other students critique the presentations.
Teacher’s Sample of Cultural Presentation

秦始皇是中国第一个皇帝。他在公元前221年统一了中国。统一后，秦始皇做了很多重要的事情，为中国的统一和发展做出了很大的贡献。

在经济方面，秦始皇统一了车轨，方便了各地的交通和经济交流；他还统一了货币、度量衡，对促进经济发展也起了很大的作用。

在文化方面，秦始皇统一了文字，方便了各地人们之间的交流。

在军事方面，为了保护中国不受北方的侵犯，秦始皇还修了长城。

在政治上，秦始望建立了中央集权统治。

秦始皇也是一个暴君，做了一些坏事。比如历史上有名的“焚书坑儒”。他烧了很多书，杀了四百多个读书人。在修长城的时候还累死了很多人，民间故事像“孟姜女”讲的就是这样的故事，一直流传到今天。

秦始皇是中国第一个皇帝，也是中国历史上一个重要的人物，对中国的影响很大。

Critique

Two Cities: Comparing Chicago and Beijing – Haiyan Fu
A Significant Historical Figure: Qin Shihuang – Xiaolin Chang

A good curriculum and instructional plan integrates effective implementation of National Standards for Foreign Language Learning in the classroom, methods that help learners acquire communicative skills, and classroom management in a student-centered environment. The two designs in this section, Two Cities: Comparing Chicago and Beijing by Haiyan Fu and A Significant Historical Figure: Qin Shihuang by Xiaolin Chang, are such examples. Each chapter provides rich pedagogical information and detailed advice that is beneficial not only to Chinese language teachers but to classroom teachers of other subjects as well.

In applying the national and state standards, Fu’s primary concerns are how to effectively facilitate students’ learning, and how to assess their language performance. The designs show that keeping standards-guided “instructional purposes” in mind for every class activity is critical.

With clear and focused goals, Fu carefully designs classroom activities that scaffold students’ learning and performance. For example, in the section “Instructional Strategies”, Fu offers both rationale and methods of five important components of instruction design. They are conceptualized and integrated with scaffolding steps to optimally facilitate learning:
1. Selecting instructional goals that will be assessed via learning outcomes
2. Facilitating learning through scaffolding where a variety of teaching techniques are required, such as questioning, feedback, reviewing, and spiraling
3. Engaging all students via differentiated instruction and cooperative learning
4. Conducting student-centered assessments where students can participate in deciding the test contents and format
5. Developing critical thinking skills by triggering students’ curiosity and promoting their logical thinking, as well as provoking them to ask interesting (有意思的) questions and alternatives such as “还有什么可能性?”

Activities presented in the second part of Fu’s design vividly detail how these concepts and techniques are executed. Students perform real-world tasks regarding daily life topics ranging from history and geography to traffic, food cultures, and leisure. Step-by-step instruction fosters students’ learning in a standards-guided, communication-oriented, and performance-based classroom.

In Chang’s design, the stage is set by asking questions that trigger students’ curiosity. Content-based activities immediately engage students in studying historical facts on the Great Wall and Qin Shihuang. Students create meaning from their readings, and construct their knowledge via discussion. History, culture, and biography are internally linked by the Chinese language that students are using as a tool for their discoveries.

Drawing upon their teaching experience, both authors insightfully select instructional focuses that include not only language forms, but appropriate contexts in which students map forms to meaning and function. Fu’s design provides pedagogical grammar, pinpointing errors that English-speaking learners frequently make, such as the word order of adverbs and the comparison construction. Chang’s design uses e-mail as a tool to help students develop their specific learning strategies at the discourse level, with suggestions such as “Look for requests”, “Look for key words”, and “Look for meaning via language forms”. Guiding students in the use of meta-cognitive skills is crucial in helping them learn how to learn. Both designs present skillful combinations of language form, content, and function to encourage students to use language correctly and appropriately. Furthermore, both authors have created curriculum materials which are pedagogically sound, authentic, and innovative.

Chang constantly offers classroom management strategies and instructional tips throughout her design. In a similar manner, Fu also provides a “Housekeeping: Daily Routine” section that offers practical skills by showing how to create a good class tone and rapport between the instructor and students. For example, the requirements for assignments to students should be well-planned and detailed, and the instructor’s speech should be brief and very clear. In such an instructional setting, students become autonomous in their learning, with a clear understanding of their work and responsibilities. To visualize the concepts and practice, interested readers may also see Fu’s teaching demonstration, published by Annenberg Learner at http://www.learner.org/channel/libraries/tfl/chinese/fu/.

Both designs raise concerns worthy of discussion. Fu’s design is rich in content with myriad information related to linguistic, cognitive, social, and emotional aspects. Her students meet the challenges competently, as demonstrated in the Sample Presentation and Exchanges section of her design. It is important for readers to first clearly see the rationales and principles behind her designed activities, and then adapt these to their own instructional situations. The vocabulary requirements of Chang’s design seem to be at a very high level of difficulty in comparison with the rest of the content and exercises given to students. Balancing new and infrequently used vocabulary in a content-based curriculum remains a challenge in both curriculum design and instructional implementation.
