Tenneco Lecture Series Events
1986-1991

November 1991: Honors Program Lecture (co-sponsor)
Josef Konvitz, Michigan State University
"The Metropolis Since 1500"

November 1991: Tenneco Lectures in Ethics and the Professions
Frank Petruzielo, Houston Independent School District
"Creating Twenty-first Century Schools: Blueprint for Excellence in Houston Schools"

October 1991: Department of History and Honors Program Lecture (co-sponsor)
David Brion Davis, Yale University
"Exodus, Black Colonization, and Promised Lands"

April 1991: Humanities and the Professions Speakers Series (co-sponsor)
Ellen B. Koch, University of Texas Health Science Center

March 1991: Tenneco Distinguished Lecture Series
Madeleine M. Kunin, Dartmouth University
"Developing a New Environmental Ethic"

November 1990: Tenneco Lectures in Ethics and the Professions
Naomi Rogers, University of Alabama
"Vegetables on Parade: Child Health Education in the 1920's"

November 1990: Noontime History Series, Texas Medical Center (co-sponsor)
Joseph T. Glatthaar, University of Houston
"The Costliness of Discrimination: Medical Care for Black Troops in the Civil War"

Martin V. Melosi, University of Houston
"Public Health and Water Supply in American Cities, 1801-1920"

James H. Jones, University of Houston
"From Insects to Sex: Alfred C. Kinsey's Methodological and Philosophical Approach to Science"

Robert C. Palmer, University of Houston
"The Medieval Origins of Legal Liability for Medical Malpractice"

Hannah S. Decker, University of Houston
"The Treatment of Hysteria Before Psychoanalysis"

October-November 1990: Scholar in Residence
Stanley J. Reiser, University of Texas Health Science Center
"Introducing a Technologic Presence in Medicine"

March 1990: Women's Studies Lecture (co-sponsor)
Martha D. Yow, Baylor Medical School
"Women in Medicine: 50 Years of Problems and Progress"

March 1990: Women's Studies Lecture (co-sponsor)
Deborah White, Rutgers University
"Race, Class, and Gender: The Impossible Juggling Act"

March 1990: Tenneco Distinguished Lecture Series
Norma Cousins, author, California
"New Dimensions in Healing"

November 1989: Tenneco Lectures in Ethics and the Professions

March 1989: Tenneco Distinguished Lecture Series
Henry G. Cisneros, Mayor of San Antonio
"Mexico and Texas: A Common Border, A Shared Future"

August 1988: Social Work Luncheon Lecture
James T. Patterson, "America's Struggle Against Poverty"

August 1988: Tenneco Lectures in Ethics and the Professions
James T. Patterson, Brown University
"Cancerphobia in American History"

February 1988: Luncheon Lecture, Tenneco, Inc.
Alfred E. Kahn, Cornell University
"Economic Deregulation"

February 1988: Tenneco Distinguished Lecture Series
Alfred E. Kahn, Cornell University
"The Perils of Affluence: Inflation, the Twin Deficits, and Protectionism"

October 1987: Houston Center for the Humanities Conference (co-sponsor)
"Houston in Search of Vision"

March 1987: Tenneco Distinguished Lecture Series
David McCullough, author, Massachusetts
"Public Works and Social Responsibility"
March 1986: Tenneco Distinguished Lecture Series
Robert A. Caro, author, New York
"Houston: A Chance for Greatness"