UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON | WGSS

Who are we?

An academic hub

supporting innovative research & lively teaching about women, gender & sexuality.

A community hub

building personal & professional networks & resources among Houston women through Table Talk, the Living Archives panels, Fast Friends speed-networking socials, the Shuart Women's Archive, & timely symposia.

A continuum

providing a platform for mutual learning & support among innovators in the community & in the university.

What do we do? Support scholarships, cutting-edge research on women & gender, community programming & historic preservation

The University of Houston Women's, Gender & Sexuality Studies Program

The FWS supply scholarships & grants for WGSS undergrad & grad students, postdoctoral fellowships, research funds for faculty, & conference & other program support.

The Carey C. Shuart Women's Archive & Research Collection

A unique & fast growing collection of documents & oral histories from active & historical Houston area women's organizations & individuals who have made history in Houston & the region.

Living Archives, Fast Friends

FWS community programming includes the Living Archives Houston women's oral history panels, Fast Friends socials, symposia & workshops.
