

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

Date:

Dear:

University of Houston produces and offers credit/non-credit, ITV, satellite and internet-based courses that may involve internet-based courseware, satellite transmission, streaming audio/video or other media and transmission formats over a local or regional geography. Individuals receiving this course(s) MAY NOT be in a place normally used for educational purposes. The course(s) _____ is (are) planned for release in the following formats:

- ___ as a live interactive closed-circuit program (not taped for rebroadcast);
___ as a videotaped course rebroadcast over educational cable television;
___ as a videotaped course rebroadcast over open airwaves by our local PBS affiliate.
___ as a distance education internet-based course or presentation;
___ as a satellite broadcast course or presentation

For the course(s) listed above, derivatives made from this course may be used for educational purposes, research and educational promotion for up to five (5) years, with review for obsolescence every two (2) years thereafter. Individuals receiving this instruction may include:

- ___ registered UH students ___ the general public ___ students at other institutions of higher learning ___ individuals

As professor in this course, I would like to use the following material(s) to illustrate a point in this course:

This material will be used during the course to:

One (1) copy will be maintained at UH and the instructor for up to _____ years, but not more than ten (10) years, for preservation purposes. I am requesting written permission from you as the copyright holder of this material to use this material in the manner described above. Thank you for your attention and consideration.

Yours truly,

___ I am the current copyright holder of the above-described material. I grant my permission to University of Houston to incorporate said material and derivatives of same to be used as described above.

___ I am the current copyright holder of the above-described material. I refuse to grant permission to the University of Houston to use the said material.

___ I am the current copyright holder of the above-described material. I grant my permission to the University of Houston to incorporate said material in the manner and situation described above for the following consideration: _____

___ I am not the current copyright holder. The current copyright holder is: _____

Signature

Date

Note: Modification of this Form requires approval of OGC