Important Information:

Recital Attendance: Bachelor of Arts in Music majors should attend at least 12 recitals each semester in residence, up to a total of 96 recitals for graduation. Students must attend at least 4 Tuesday recitals and at least 4 other MSM recitals/concerts each semester to meet attendance requirements.

All UH degrees require at least 120 earned credits, 36 of which must be advanced. The last 30 credits of any UH degree must be completed at UH.

Co-enrollment in applied music and ensemble is required even after degree requirements are satisfied.

ENGL 1303/1304 and MATH 1310 should be completed in the first year. All other core courses may be taken in any order as long as all prerequisites are met; this plan is only a suggested sequence.

 Proficiency exam is a prerequisite for this course.
+ A list of approved electives is available in the office each semester.
◦ Group Piano courses are waived for students whose major instrument is piano.
* Students with previous foreign language experience may test out of 1000-level coursework.
Blanks to be filled by CLASS electives and minor coursework.
Please see the reverse page for additional degree requirements.
Deviations from this plan should be approved by an advisor.

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Bachelor of Arts in Music

The Bachelor of Arts in Music degree is a comprehensive liberal arts degree with a strong concentration in music and an emphasis on academic coursework. Coursework includes applied lessons, music theory and history, and upper-level electives. Students gain performance experience in marching band, wind ensemble, jazz band, orchestra, choir, opera, and various chamber music ensembles. Students completing this degree may pursue careers in music or in other fields.

Admissions Requirements

To pursue the Bachelor of Arts in Music, students must apply separately to the Moore School of Music and complete a successful audition. The music school application is available at www.music.uh.edu. Please note that music school application deadlines may differ from those of the university. General information and application materials: www.music.uh.edu

Scholarships

Awards for merit-based music scholarships are determined primarily by the student's skill level demonstrated at the audition. The admission audition serves as the scholarship audition and all applicants are considered for scholarship without the need for additional paperwork. Applicants accepted to the program who are initially denied music scholarship may reapply for scholarship in subsequent semesters of study. Students who receive scholarships may also request scholarship increases in subsequent semesters of study. Bachelor of Arts degree candidates are only eligible for 4 semesters of music scholarship.
