Careers In Hospitality

There are so many career paths that you can take in the dynamic global hospitality industry. Here are just a few:

- Private Clubs
- Resorts
- Catering & Event Management
- Convention & Meeting Management
- Spa Management
- Gaming & Casino Management
- Wine & Spirits
- Cruise Line Operations
- Night Club & Bar Management
- Tourism
- Hospital & Airline Foodservice
- Theme Park Operations
- Chef/Restaurant Owner
- Institutional Catering
- Marketing & Sales
- Revenue Management
- Human Resources
- Hospitality Law
- Hospitality Technology
- Acquisitions & Development

And so much more!

Contact Us

FOR MORE INFORMATION about our Hospitality Leadership Certificate—or the Conrad N. Hilton College-San Antonio—contact our San Antonio-based advisors:

- MARIISELA GARCIA
  Phone: 713-743-2470
  Email: mgarcia@uh.edu

- MELISSA GUERRA
  Phone: 713-743-6646
  Email: mguerra3@uh.edu

- ASSISTANT DEAN GRAHAM BOWCHER
  Phone: 713-743-3760
  Email: gbowcher@uh.edu

www.hrm.uh.edu
Why Study Hospitality

The importance of tourism and hospitality in the Alamo City creates a wealth of opportunities for graduates of both St. Philip’s College and Conrad N. Hilton College-San Antonio. Worldwide, tourism is an almost $2 trillion industry that employs more than 100 million people and is expected to generate another 20 million jobs by 2021. San Antonio, regarded as the “Hospitality Capital of Texas,” is the 7th largest city in the United States and employs roughly 125,000 people in a tourism-hospitality industry that generates more than $14 billion annually for the local economy.

Hospitality Leadership Certificate

Our Hospitality Leadership Certificate provides a pathway to enter this exciting industry, or use the knowledge you gain from these classes to further your current hospitality career!

You can earn your Hospitality Leadership Certificate by completing four courses at our San Antonio campus. Courses for you to select from include Human Resource Management, Hospitality Cost Controls, Leadership in the Hospitality Industry, Managerial Accounting, Hospitality Marketing and Beverage Management.

Credits can be applied toward a bachelor’s degree in hotel and restaurant management from the University of Houston’s Conrad N. Hilton College of Hotel and Restaurant Management.

Scholarship Support

We have exceptional industry support for our hospitality program in San Antonio—they want to hire our graduates! The hospitality industry has provided substantial scholarship support for our students. If you are accepted to our program, you will receive a scholarship!

About Conrad N. Hilton College-San Antonio

Consistently ranked among the top hospitality programs in the world, the University of Houston’s Conrad N. Hilton College of Hotel and Restaurant Management was founded in 1969 by hotel icon Conrad N. Hilton. As a student at the Conrad N. Hilton College-San Antonio, you will have access to great faculty known for their industry knowledge, teaching skills and accessibility. You’ll also be able to engage with our Career Development & Placement Office and benefit from our incredible student-support systems—not to mention our extensive hospitality and alumni networks.