IMPORTANCE OF ONBOARDING

A successful and effective onboarding process can improve employee retention and reduce turnover. By providing the new employee support throughout the onboarding process, it will help them adjust and become more productive quicker as well as help them feel like they are an important part of the team.

Studies have shown the importance of a successful onboarding program. The results show greater satisfaction from management as well as greater performance from the employee.

NEW HIRE ORIENTATION

- Introduction to UH
- Overview of UH policies
- Benefit Information
- UH ID
- Parking permit

DAY 1

- Send out welcome email to department
- If the employee is bi-weekly, discuss TRAM procedures
- Answer any immediate questions the employee may have
- Tour of department & introductions to co-workers
- Provide keys, uniform, equipment, etc
- Give employee time to get acquainted with his/her workspace
  - Log into computer/phone systems
  - Set up email, voicemail, etc
- Introduce to “buddy”
- Lunch
- Review first week
- Provide schedule
- Talk with Manager
  - Review organizational chart
  - Describe department goals and mission statement
  - Explain levels of supervision
  - Explain their role within the department
  - Expectations & policies
- Provide any department instructions, manuals, guides, desk manuals for employee review
- Provide New Hire Online Training List (Have employee enroll in required trainings)
- Answer any pending questions

FIRST WEEK

- Have employee complete New Hire Training and any additional required trainings
- Have employee set up benefits (See Benefit Timeline section)
- Discuss milestones and projects
- Review calendar of events
- Set 30 day priorities
- Define individual goals and objectives
- Discuss expectations
- Clearly define the career path

FIRST MONTH

- Informal check-ins with the new employee
- Review the first month
- Provide feedback regarding performance
- Solicit feedback from employee
- Solicit feedback from peers

FIRST SIX MONTHS

- Continue meeting with your team member on a regular basis. The first week for a new employee is often full of meetings, information gathering and tours. However, your new hire will probably still feel “new” for some time, so it’s important that you keep a line of communication open with him or her and continue to structure some time for questions, information sessions, and training. Sample questions to ask your new team member at these meetings are provided in the Question section.

DURING THE FIRST SIX MONTHS TO ONE YEAR

- Regularly meet with new employees to set goals, review performance, and give feedback. Also, ask for feedback about how things are going and if they’re getting the support they need from you and others.
- Ask new hires if there are learning and professional development opportunities that seem interesting to them. Discuss which ones are appropriate and show them how to enroll
- Conduct evaluation period/trial period formal review.
- Encourage your new team member to get involved with the community. They could do this by talking to colleagues about campus groups, publications and other professional activities and resources that are available.
TIPS FOR MANAGERS

BE SURE THAT YOU DON’T:

1. Forget to create or assign a work space for your new employee.
2. Schedule the new employee to start work while her supervisor is on vacation.
3. Leave the new employees standing in the company reception area for a half hour while reception staff tries to figure out what to do with them.
4. Leave the new employee at her work station, to manage on her own, while coworkers pair up and head out to lunch.
5. Leave the new employee in the lobby to read and sign-off on a 100 page Employee Handbook.
6. Show the new employee his office without introducing him or her to coworkers or assigning a mentor.
7. Assign the new employee to a mentor who has a major, career-impacting deadline, in three days.
8. Assign the new employee to a Buddy who is also your most unhappy, negative, team-bashing staff member.
9. Assign the employee “busy work” that has nothing to do with his or her core job description, because you are having a busy week.
10. Leave the employee to find their own way without help or support from you

BUDDY PROGRAM

THE ROLE BUDDIES PLAY

A new employee’s orientation is greatly enhanced by setting up a buddy for the employee. A buddy is not a substitute for a supervisor, but is someone who can provide guidance and answer the new employee’s questions about the work environment and the workplace culture in a positive and encouraging way. A buddy can relate new employee information to actual situations.

HOW TO STRUCTURE A BUDDY ASSIGNMENT

A buddy should build rapport with the new employee by meeting face-to-face and answering questions by email, phone or instant messenger within a reasonable amount of time. It is encouraged for buddies to meet face-to-face for a minimum of 30 minutes each week for an established time period; however, support can go beyond the defined time period if appropriate and useful.

WHAT MAKES A SUCCESSFUL BUDDY

To be a buddy, an employee must understand the culture, have good interpersonal skills, and want to help. Below is a list of other qualities to consider when looking for a buddy:

- Can be given the time to be accessible to the employee
- Holds a job similar to that of the new employee (i.e. peer)
- Possesses a full understanding of the work environment (minimum length of service of six months or a year)
- Has a good performance record
- Is well regarded by peers
- Has good communication and interpersonal skills
- Has patience and is empathetic
- Has a positive attitude
- Possesses a strong sense of confidentiality

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF A BUDDY

A buddy should provide as much concise information as possible to help the new employee feel comfortable in his/her work environment. The buddy should be a resource to the new employee on work rules, workplace culture and norms, and unwritten policies and procedures. Below is a list of other responsibilities of a buddy:

- Helping socialize the new employee with peers, joining them for lunch, etc.
- Identifying resources in the workplace
- Providing a tour of the workplace if the supervisor has not already done so
- Reporting any serious issues/concerns to the manager/supervisor or Human Resources
- Answering questions and referring the new employee to the appropriate resource
- Instilling a sense of belonging
Congratulations on being selected as a “Buddy” for [new employee’s name] who is joining us on [start date] as a [job title]. As a Buddy, you are a key player in our onboarding program, helping the new employees to become better acquainted with the university, the department, his/her co-workers, and his/her job.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A BUDDY INCLUDE:

- Be an informational resource for the new employee on policies, procedures, work rules, norms, etc.
- Provide insight, feedback, and information that support the new employee’s social involvement in the department
- Assist in training the new employee
- Be a tour guide; provide introductions
- Identify resources to help the new employee

A NEW EMPLOYEE WILL EXPECT THE FOLLOWING FROM YOU:

- Advice, guidance, encouragement, and a positive attitude
- Confidentiality with shared information
- Honest feedback
- Help in understanding the culture of our company and the branch
- Help in understanding how to get things done
- Assistance in building networks and relationships within the department and with customers
- Insight into how to make relationships with people effective and productive
- How to balance three forms of communication – E-mail, telephone, in-person

TIPS FOR BUDDIES

- Don’t worry about being perceived as the “expert.” Your experience is important to the new employee.
- You don’t have to have all the answers.
- Be patient and positive. It takes time to develop a relationship. Don’t try to cover everything right away.
- Buddies need to allow enough time for growth.
- Don’t try to force a relationship.
- Look for a preferred style of communication and/or cultural identification.
- Don’t try to turn the new employee into your clone. That person may have a different style from yours.
- Let the new employee develop.
- Listening may be more important than giving advice.
• Don’t be judgmental; ask questions such as “What do you need?” “What makes you feel that way?” “How can I help?”; don’t draw conclusions without exploring the reasons why someone feels or acts a certain way.
• Keep a good attitude and stay in a teaching spirit.
• Don’t lose heart because of a new employee’s failures. You cannot always ensure success, but you can help that person to begin again more intelligently.

BUDDY SCHEDULE

New Employee’s Info:

Name:

Job Title:

BEFORE THE NEW EMPLOYEE STARTS

• Assist the manager in preparing the new employee’s work area by ensuring that the work area is clean, and has a computer, phone, trash can, office supplies, etc.
• Review the new employee’s background so you are familiar with their experience.

WEEK ONE

• Meet and greet the employee on their first day with you.
• Take the new employee on a tour of the location and introduce them to other employees.
• Explain mail procedures, using the copier/fax/scanning machines, and any other procedural information specific to your department.
• Show them their work area and ensure they have all the supplies they need.
• Assist new employees with any questions he or she may have.

FIRST MONTH

• Have informal check-ins throughout the month with new staff member to if they have any additional questions or if you can assist them in any way.
• Review what has already been covered

AFTER THE END OF THE FIRST MONTH

• Buddy relationship may continue informally as desired or needed.
FOREIGN NATIONAL HIRES

The University of Houston can hire foreign nationals when the terms of their visa allow for employment in the United States. The most common scenarios are listed below. This is an overview and not an exhaustive review of eligibility requirements and restrictions. For specifics on hiring foreign nationals, please consult the appropriate office for that visa type.

Visas Handled by ISSSO: http://www.uh.edu/oisss/

- F-1 Student Visa: Employable at .50 FTE or less. Must be a UH student or have special permission to work outside the school they are attending.
- F-1 Curricular Practical Training (CPT): Employable for up to one year at up to 1.0 FTE. Work must be directly related to course of study and employment can only be on the campus where the individual is studying.
- F-1 Optional Practical Training (OPT): Similar to CPT, above, but the visa holder can work for any employer.
- J-1 Cultural Exchange: May work up to 1.0 FTE, as long as the type of work performed aligns with the stated reason for being in the United States, as detailed on the DS-2019 form.

Visas Handled by the Office of the General Counsel:
http://www.uh.edu/immigration/contact/index.php

- H-1B: Employee must be sponsored by the hiring department. Various fees apply. Terms of employment must be set in advance of hire and filed with the USCIS and Department of Labor.
- TN: Canadian or Mexican national, employed in a job covered by the NAFTA treaty.
- O-1 Extraordinary Ability: Restricted to individuals who can demonstrate extraordinary ability as evidenced by national or international acclaim in one’s field.
- Permanent Residency: UH sponsorship for permanent residency is rare and subject to a number of qualifications and restrictions. Please see the UH Immigration Website for details.

SETTING UP COMPUTER ACCESS

To request computer access, send the following information to your IT Specialist

Procedure for New Hire (Full Time Staff or Work-study)

- Name of Staff/Work-Study PS #
- Department
- Start Date
- Location Room Number
- Specify whether they are going to be full time or part time staff.
- Name of department network share drives they would need access to.
- Off Campus Equipment. A PRP-2 form must be filled out for all off campus items.
- If the new hire is a student worker please make sure to fill out and sign a Sponsored “Personal Account” Application which can be downloaded from here: http://www.uh.edu/infotech/services/accounts/sponsored/index.php

This is to request an Exchange email account and or a Cougarnet account for the student worker if they do not already have one. This form should be signed and submitted at least 3 business days before new hire start date. If the person is a full time staff then a Sponsored Personal Application does not need to be filled out unless the department wants the person to start before the actual start date.
Providing a tour of the new employee’s work area can prevent him/her from being or feeling lost or confused during the first week. Orientation to the physical environment can be accomplished on the first day of employment.

A tour of the employee’s work location might include:

- The Campus
- Restrooms
- Break/lunch rooms
- Kitchen, including any department procedures
- Vending machines
- Supply room, including any department procedures
- Emergency and first aid supplies
- Photocopy and fax machine, including instructions on use
- Mail Centers
- Transportation services and stops
- Emergency Evacuation/Plans
- Other department locations on campus the employee may frequently interact with
