All applicants must upload a video recording for preliminary evaluation purposes along with all other application materials by the priority music application deadline. The requirements for the video recording are the same as the live audition requirements.

Master of Music (Percussion Performance)

Auditions for the Master of Music Degree in Percussion must be a minimum of 30 minutes, and not more than 45 minutes. Minimum audition requirements for percussion applicants are as follows, including suggested amount of time for each:

- An advanced work for four-mallet marimba, the level of which is consistent with the expectations of a final recital for an undergraduate degree in percussion performance – 10-15 minutes.
- A work of a similar level for two-mallet keyboard (eg., a xylophone rag, movement of a 2-mallet concerto, etc.) – 4-6 minutes.
- A work or several movements from a collection of a similar level for timpani (eg., Carter’s March and Canaries – 6-8 minutes.
- Several advanced solos or etudes in contrasting style (concert and rudimental) for snare drum (eg., etudes from Delecluse’s Twelve Etudes; Gauthereaux’s American Suite, etc.), which fully demonstrate your abilities on the instrument – 4-6 minutes.
- One short piece or suite movement of a similar level for multiple-percussion – 4-6 minutes.

You will be asked to sight-read on snare drum and keyboards (two-mallets only), and asked to tune various intervals on timpani.

Graduate applicants will also be asked to supply:

1. A brief vita identifying your education, music employment background, awards and honors you have received both in music and in other areas, etc.
2. A repertoire list of all the solos and percussion ensembles you have played.

All percussion instruments you may need will be provided; you may bring your own snare drum, but please do not bring keyboard instruments or timpani. Sticks and mallets will not be provided. Please provide a copy of your music for panel hearing you play.

Please contact Blake Wilkins at (713) 743-3192 for further information.
Applications
All voice applicants must upload a video recording for preliminary evaluation purposes, a printed program from their last degree recital, and a comprehensive repertoire list with their application submission. The video recording must contain 5 selections, including at least one operatic aria, and must show evidence of memorization and live piano accompaniment. The completed application with all uploads must be received by the priority music application deadline.

Master of Music
For the live audition, applicants are required to perform at least 5 selections, demonstrating the highest level of achievement to date. These must be in at least 4 different languages (one selection may be in English). They must represent various national styles and various historical periods.

Applicants must submit at the time of the audition: a copy of the last degree recital given, a current comprehensive repertoire list, and a resume.

Doctor of Musical Arts and Certificate in Music Performance
For the live audition, applicants are required to perform a 60-minute recital program from memory. Demonstration of superior technical achievement, breadth of repertoire and styles, and a minimum of 4 languages (one selection/group may be in English) are requirements.

Applicants must submit a current curriculum vita at the time of the audition.

For all graduate applicants to the voice department:
- Proper attire is required at the audition.
- All selections must be performed from memory.
- All selections must be with piano accompaniment.
- Printed scores (or photocopies in a binder) of all selections must be provided to staff accompanist at or before the audition. These scores must be in the key to be sung. Applicants are permitted and encouraged to bring their own accompanist.
- Individuals not fully prepared or in compliance with all of the above requirements will be ineligible for placement.

Studio placement is decided by the voice faculty at the time of the audition. Applicants may request a specific voice teacher on the audition form. If a student is accepted by the requested teacher and if there is room in his/her studio, the student will be so assigned. If no preference is stated at the audition or if the requested studio is full, the student will be assigned an instructor.
All applicants must upload a video recording for preliminary evaluation purposes along with all other application materials by the priority music application deadline. The requirements for the video recording are the same as the live audition requirements.

Master of Music, Doctor of Musical Arts and Certificate in Music Performance

Auditions for graduate study in organ consist of one one-half hour recital of organ repertoire chosen by the candidate. The performer should demonstrate the ability to perform music in more than one style. The quality of performance and choice of repertoire for the MM degree must be at least at the level of a senior recital in organ; that for DMA study must be at the level of a Masters recital in organ.

Candidates are strongly encouraged to discuss the choice of repertoire with Dr. Robert Bates before determining a program. The date and time of the audition should be arranged directly with Dr. Bates, either by e-mail at organist@airmail.net, or by phone at (713) 743-3193.

Piano

All applicants must upload a video recording for preliminary evaluation purposes along with all other application materials by the priority music application deadline. The requirements for the video recording are the same as the live audition requirements.

Master of Music (Piano Performance)

The audition should consist of three fully memorized selections from the standard classical piano repertoire representing contrasting musical periods and styles. The audition will be approximately twenty minutes in length and will include a short interview with the faculty committee. Some examination of sight-reading skills may also be part of the audition. The audition should be live or in special circumstances and uploaded video recording.

Master of Music (Piano Performance and Pedagogy)

Doctor of Musical Arts (Piano Performance)

The audition should consist of a fully memorized recital program of at least seventy minutes in length, containing works from the standard classical piano repertoire and representing at least three contrasting musical periods and styles. An interview with the faculty committee will follow the performance audition. The audition should be live, or in special circumstances, an uploaded video recording. No audio tapes will be accepted for a DMA audition. Some examination of sight-reading skills may also be part of the audition.
Certificate in Music Performance in Piano Performance

The live audition should consist of a fully memorized recital program of at least seventy minutes in length, containing works from the standard classical piano repertoire and representing at least three contrasting musical periods and styles. An interview with the faculty committee will follow the performance audition. Some examination of sight-reading skills may also be part of the audition.

Please contact Nancy Weems at (713) 743-3182 for further information.

Collaborative Arts / Keyboard
Timothy Hester, Keyboard Collaborative Arts Coordinator

All applicants must upload a video recording for preliminary evaluation purposes along with all other application materials by the priority music application deadline. The requirements for the video recording are the same as the live audition requirements.

Master of Music (Keyboard Collaborative Arts)

Applicants interested in auditioning for the M.M. in Keyboard Collaborative Arts must prepare three representative works in different styles and varied instrumentation (for example: a baroque flute sonata, a romantic string sonata and a modern vocal work). There will be a sight-reading evaluation and an interview with the keyboard faculty following the prepared audition. A taped audition is possible if the applicant lives more than 300 miles from Houston.

Doctor of Musical Arts (Piano Performance — Keyboard Collaborative Arts emphasis)

An audition for the D.M.A. in Piano Performance with an emphasis in Collaborative Arts must consist of approximately 30 minutes of solo playing representing at least two periods and 40 minutes of collaborative repertoire representing at least three different types of compositions (for example: 10 minutes of German lieder, 10 minutes of a French String Sonata or Chamber Work and 10 minutes of a 20th Century Woodwind Concerto reduction). There will also be 10 additional minutes set aside for sight reading evaluation that will consist of:
1) sight-reading of instrumental repertoire.
2) sight-reading of vocal music, incorporating the playing of the vocal line into the accompaniment.
3) transposition of a song up or down a half or whole step.

In exceptional cases, an uploaded video recording of the 70-minute recital program may be submitted for admission. A full transcript of the student's academic career and a musical vita and repertoire list must be presented at the audition. An interview will follow the live audition.

Certificate in Music Performance (Keyboard Collaborative Arts)
An audition for the Certificate in Music Performance in Keyboard Collaborative Arts must consist of approximately 30 minutes of solo playing representing at least two periods and 40 minutes of collaborative repertoire representing at least three different types of compositions (for example: 10 minutes of German lieder, 10 minutes of a French String Sonata or Chamber Work and 10 minutes of a 20th Century Woodwind Concerto reduction). There will also be 10 additional minutes set aside for sight reading evaluation that will consist of:
1) sight-reading of instrumental repertoire.
2) sight-reading of vocal music, incorporating the playing of the vocal line into the accompaniment.
3) transposition of a song up or down a half or whole step.

If applicants for the Collaborative Arts program are unable to bring collaborative partners with them to the audition, they may notify the Director of Keyboard Collaborative Arts, Timothy Hester, at (713) 743-3309 to arrange contact with Moores School of Music students or faculty who will kindly assist in rehearsing and performing the audition.

It is important that the applicant coordinate the audition with both the Office of Graduate Studies as well as the Director of Keyboard Collaborative Arts.
