Tartuffe
Music and libretto by Kirke Mecham/Based on a play by Molière
When you plan to give a somewhat dubious holy man your daughter’s hand, you’d better make sure he isn’t also seducing your wife and robbing you blind. A lively and hilarious look at hypocrisy and greed hiding behind a mask of piety, Molière’s Tartuffe is one of the great classics of the theatre. This opera version has already had over 100 productions around the world and will delight you with its brio, wit, and charm. Our production is set in an elegant villa in Monaco in the 1920’s. Sung in English with English surtitles.

The composer/librettist will be present for the weekend performances and preview lectures.

Amelia
Music by Daron Hagen / Libretto by Gardner McFall
Story by Stephen Wadsworth
Haunted by her father’s death, when he was a pilot in the Vietnam War, a woman comes to terms with the ghosts of her past, the dream of flight, and the hope of being reborn. Anyone who has ever loved a parent, a spouse, or a child will not fail to be moved by this soaring and lyrical opera. Premiered in 2010 by the Seattle Opera, we are proud to present its second production. Sung in English with English surtitles.

Amelia is being presented, in part, with a generous grant from The Cullen Trust for the Performing Arts.

The composer and librettist will be present for the weekend performances and preview lectures.
