News & Notes

Frank Huang, a member of our affiliate artist faculty and a former student of our legendary faculty member and University of Houston Farfel award winner Fredell Lack, has been appointed the next concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic.

Cory Meals (MM, ’12 from the studio of David Bertman) has been named Assistant Director of Bands/Assistant Professor of Education at Kennesaw State University in Georgia.

Kasandra Keeling (MM, ’96/BM, ’93 from the studio of Nancy Weems) received the University of Texas at San Antonio 2015 President’s Distinguished Achievement Award for Creative Production. This university-wide award recognizes, encourages, and rewards an individual whose performance, creative production or other scholarly achievement in the arts or other appropriate disciplines, has manifested unusual excellence and merit and has directly or indirectly benefitted students and the University, as well as the artistic or scholarly domain of the faculty member. It is awarded to one tenured or tenure-track faculty member per year. Also this past year, Keeling was awarded the 2014 American Prize for Piano Performance (concerto division) for her performance of Rachmaninoff’s “Rhapsody on a Theme by Paganini” and was invited to join the high school piano faculty at Interlochen Arts Camp.
