The Houston Shakespeare Festival Conservatory is a rigorous two week, intensive summer camp for high school students, focusing on teaching Shakespeare performance and exposing students to the professional theatre world.

The HSF Conservatory is designed to give high school students:

- One-on-one Master Classes with AEA professionals in acting, voice, text analysis, stage combat and much more
- Opportunity to perform at Houston’s premiere summer theatre festival and be seen by over 25,000 spectators
- Develop and perform a showcase of scenes and monologues
- Create and present two Green Shows at Miller Outdoor Theatre

When: Friday, July 24, 2015 to Sunday, August 9, 2015
Where: University of Houston School of Theatre & Dance
133 CWM Center
Houston, TX  77204-4016

Cost: $1,400.00, includes room & board on the UH campus
$ 250.00 deposit required*

Application Deadline: May 15, 2015

Application Check List:

1. Fill out the Application Paperwork. All application forms can be downloaded on the Conservatory page by visiting http://www.theatre.uh.edu > click “Houston Shakespeare Festival” under Related Links, and find our page!

2. Mail us the Following:
   - Your application with your $250.00 required deposit*. This is a non-refundable deposit for those who are accepted into the Conservatory.
   - “Student Resume Form”
   - Headshot/Resume
   - “Media Release Form”.

3. You will be notified of acceptance within three weeks of receipt of your application.

* Cost is less the $250.00 deposit

EARLY REGISTRATION IS ENCOURAGED. The HSF Conservatory limits its enrollment to 15 students.

Mail Application and Deposit to:
HSF Conservatory
UH School of Theatre & Dance
133 CWM Center
Houston, Texas 77204-4016

For more information please contact mnluf@uh.edu or hsfc@uh.edu