

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

KATHRINE G. McGOVERN
COLLEGE OF THE ARTS
School of Theatre & Dance

HAROUN AND THE SEA OF STORIES

Written by Salman Rushdie

Adapted by David Tushingam and Tim Supple

Directed by Adam Noble

Friday, November 15 at 10 a.m. · Lyndall Finley Wortham Theatre

In a city so ruinously sad that it has forgotten its name, a master storyteller suddenly falls silent. Troubled, his son Haroun sets out to find the fabled Sea of Stories and revive the storyteller's gift. On that journey, Haroun finds that many of his father's outlandish tales — filled with magic and fantastic creatures — are not only beautiful but also true. This all-ages play, closely adapted from the classic children's novel, is a fanciful adventure exploring the struggle between light and darkness and highlighting the human need to communicate. It is a fable written out of Salman Rushdie's own famous battle with censorship.

School Name _____

Contact Name _____

Contact Email _____

Contact Phone _____ - _____ - _____ ext. _____

Number of students attending _____

$5 per student

Number of chaperones _____

1 complimentary ticket per 10 students

Total Tickets _____

How will payment be submitted? Please check one of the boxes below

Credit Card

Purchase Order

Check

Cash

How did you hear about this production?

May we add you to our email contact list for future school opportunities?

Yes

No

Reservations will be confirmed via email and are on a first-come, first-served basis. Please submit this form to kgmcbboxoffice@uh.edu at least 10 days prior to the production date. No refunds or exchanges will be available once payment is received.

Questions? Contact:

Kathrine G. McGovern College of the Arts Box Office
713-743-3388 | kgmcbboxoffice@uh.edu