Jeanne Marandon Fellowships

DEADLINE: JANUARY 15th 2016

Candidates must be U.S. citizens, be affiliated with an American college or university, become members of the SPFFA at the time of their application and have a sufficient command of spoken and written French to pursue their proposed studies and/or research in France or in Québec. Applications in all disciplines are considered, but applicants in literature, art, music, history, social sciences and communications have priority. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CLICK HERE

Jean and Marie-Louise Dufrenoy Scholarships

DEADLINE: JANUARY 15th 2016

Each year the Jean et Marie-Louise Dufrenoy scholarships enable two American students in the sciences (mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, medicine, geology, botany) or in technology (engineering, computer science, etc.) to pursue further studies in France during a full academic year within the student’s own field. If there is no candidate in any scientific discipline qualifying for a scholarship, the scholarships may be awarded to students who, after receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree, would start a career in the fields of education or diplomacy. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CLICK HERE

Teaching Assistant Programs

DEADLINE: JANUARY 15th 2016

The Teaching Assistant Program in France offers students the opportunity to work in France for 7 months, teaching English to French students of all ages.

You can also host a French teaching assistant! The French Teaching Internship Program offers U.S. schools and universities the opportunity to welcome young French educators to train as teaching interns in their classrooms.

Chateaubriand HSS Fellowship Program

DEADLINE: JANUARY 20th 2016

The Higher Education department of the French Embassy is pleased to inform you that the Chateaubriand Fellowship Call for applications for the academic year 2016/2017 is now open. Every year, it allows doctorate students enrolled in American universities to conduct research in France for up to 9 months FOR MORE INFORMATION, CLICK HERE

Summer Scholarships for High School and College students

DEADLINE: JANUARY 15th 2016

The American Society of French Academic Palms (AFSAP) will award two scholarships ($4000 each) for high school and college students learning French. The scholarships go toward a four-week minimum study program in a French country of their choice during the 2016 summer. Criteria and applications can be found on the AFSAP website below. For any further information, please contact Joyce Beckwith: MmeJoyB@aol.com TO APPLY, CLICK HERE!