University of Houston

The goal of the University of Houston is quite simple. To bring the best minds and resources in the world to Houston. It's paying off. The university's students are benefiting from a world-class education so that they are prepared to excel in whatever career paths they choose. Of the university's 175,000 graduates, over 25,000 have gone ahead to make great advancements in the fields of science and engineering. Advancements that are changing not only our city but our world for the better. That is what makes a great university, a great university.
