

Go Texan Day Celebrated at U of H

Texas traditions have always been a part of what makes the University of Houston great. One of those traditions, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, has directly supported the University of Houston for many years, providing scholarships to as many as 200 deserving students attending UH and other UH System schools each year. In a salute to our rich Texas heritage, University of Houston Chancellor Renu Khator encouraged the campus community to wear their favorite Western attire on Feb. 24 in celebration of "Go Texan Day."
