Onward and Upward

"The world is more reasonable than you think and it's waiting for you to hone it into shape... That's what this degree of yours is - a blunt instrument. So go both and build something with it..." - Bono

Today we celebrate our MSW and Ph.D. graduates set to join the ranks of the social work profession and change the world. They have been a dedicated and assistance group and we look forward to honoring their accomplishments at our Commencement ceremony. We bring you the first-ever university-wide Commencement Ceremonies on Friday, May 15, 2015. For details on this year’s commencement please visit the UH website.
