It is critical that students remain current with reading assignments to fully participate in class discussions.
B. Class Presentation

GROUP PRESENTATION

OBJECTIVE
The objective of this assignment is to assist students in gaining further knowledge about social work practice with clients experiencing unique crisis situations. Students will have the opportunity to participate in a small group and will be assigned a crisis area for exploration. The group project will begin early in the semester allowing students time to complete meaningful research of their crisis area. Modeling presentations of professional conferences.

AREAS OF FOCUS
This assignment is designed to challenge students to become “experts” in the assigned crisis area to include:

1. comprehensive review of the literature on the selected crisis area;
2. development of a framework for understanding the unique characteristics of the crisis;
3. development of a case vignette illustrating the chosen area;
4. exploration of crisis treatment considerations for helping these persons in crisis;
5. discussion of ethical, clinical, and cultural issues relevant to this area;
6. discussion of the implications for social work practice; and
7. an overview of professional self-care issues for social workers working in this field of work, that is, how they may be impacted by the work and what safeguards should be implemented to prevent negative consequences of helping.

Students are required to develop a well-coordinated and professional power point presentation. Each group member should play an active and consistent part in all aspects of the project from research, development, and presentation.

 Each group will have one full class night to present. (Presentation must be at least 2 hours) The group must formulate a written Intervention Plan in their selected area

Creativity in the presentation is encouraged, to include role play, speakers and handouts.
