

Full time Faculty Position

Keuka College seeks applicants for a full time, 10-month tenure-track teaching position in its undergraduate social work program. The start date is August 16, 2011 (pending budget approval).

Minimum qualifications include:

- MSW degree, Ph.D. preferred, and post-secondary teaching experience, preferably in a BSW program
- Ability to teach a variety of social work courses to include: policy, practice, and HBSE
- Commitment to excellence in teaching, advising, and to student development
- Understanding of and commitment to the epistemology, philosophy, and practice of experiential education
- Ability to work in a collegial fashion with social work faculty and faculty outside the program
- Interest in creative program development
- Willingness to work with colleagues and the Admissions staff to increase enrollment of freshmen and transfer students

Keuka is a private, independent, liberal arts-based institution located in the picturesque Finger Lakes region of central New York. The college is located in a rural area but enjoys excellent community support. Current full time enrollment is 1060 students. The institution is a pioneer in experiential education, and our Field Period program remains a centerpiece of the Keuka educational experience.

The BSW program is accredited by CSWE and growing. Rank, salary and benefits are commensurate with experience.
