Hospice care helps terminally ill beneficiaries continue life with minimal disruption. Benefits include pain control, symptom management, and counseling for beneficiaries and their families to help make the last days of a beneficiary's life as comfortable as possible. This type of care is important, yet hospice care in the Medicare program does not escape the problems of fraud, waste, and abuse.

Prior registration required to: Barbara McGinity, bmeginity@bbbhou.org
There is no workshop fee

Social Work - 1.0 Social Work CEUS provided through the Better Business Bureau Education Foundation

The Texas Senior Medicare Patrol is a federal grant program educating Medicare beneficiaries about Medicare fraud and abuse. It is funded in part by a grant from the Administration on Community Living.