

Job Title	Assistant Professor, Child & Family Studies
Employer/ Agency	Portland State University
Job Description	The Child & Family Studies (CFS) program in the School of Social Work at Portland State University invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor with a specialization in early childhood care and education. This position is a nine-month, full-time, 1.00 FTE tenure-track appointment scheduled to begin September 16, 2014.
Qualifications	The successful candidate will have a solid background in early childhood education and care, with foundations in family studies, human development, social justice and anti-bias frameworks, and interdisciplinary understandings of and work with children and families. Candidates should demonstrate strong research and scholarship potential, as well as an established record of strong teaching at the undergraduate level. Applicants must: hold a doctorate (PhD/EdD) in Early Childhood Education, Family Studies, Human Development, Social Work, or a related field; demonstrated record of instruction at the undergrad level; specialize (scholarship or teaching) in education and/or care of young children – including child and family intervention; pursue a scholarly and research agenda leading to peer-reviewed publications and submission of funding proposals; and be willing to teach interdisciplinary undergraduate family studies and general education courses. ABD candidates who meet the position qualifications may be considered; these candidates must include in their application materials a letter from their chair with a scheduled date of defense. All employees must demonstrate the following key competencies: creates an environment that acknowledges, encourages and celebrates differences; functions and communicates effectively and respectfully within the context of varying beliefs, behaviors, orientations, identities and cultural backgrounds; seeks opportunities to gain experience working and collaborating in diverse, multicultural, and inclusive setting with a willingness to change for continual improvement; adheres to all PSU's policies, including the policies on Prohibited Discrimination & Harassment and the Professional Standards of Conduct. Candidates must be able to successfully complete a background check and possess a valid driver's license. Preferred Qualifications We primarily seek applicants who have expertise in early childhood education and care and can also teach across the Child & Family Studies curriculum (including courses in family of origin and bias recognition, social justice and anti-oppression work, family theory, stress and coping, family law and policy, and related courses). CFLE credentialing is desired. Ideal candidates will also have experience working effectively around issues of social justice, diversity, and inclusion, with demonstrated capacity to meet the needs of historically underrepresented students and other marginalized groups.
Salary/Hours	Compensation dependent upon qualifications and experience (salary range $60,000 - $65,000), with an excellent benefits package including 95% premium paid healthcare; a generous retirement and vacation package; and reduced tuition rates.
Employer/Agency	Portland State University

City, State, Zip	Portland, OR
Application Method	We invite applications from and nominations of well-qualified individuals. Applicants are requested to provide TWO hard copies of the following documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •cover letter (please address teaching experience, scholarly agenda and accomplishments, and commitment to social justice and equity; also indicate your intention to attend NAEYC’s national conference in Washington, DC, Nov. 20-23, where interviews will be scheduled; should you not be able to attend the conference, other arrangements may be made.) •curriculum vitae •names and contact information for three references Applications should be received by October 15, 2013. The review of applications will begin immediately. Please send materials to: Ben Anderson-Nathe, PhD Associate Professor Program Director, Child & Family Studies Chair, Faculty Search Committee Portland State University - School of Social Work P.O. Box 751 Street Address: 1800 SW 6th Ave., ASRC Building, 6th Floor Mail Code: SSW Portland, Oregon 97207-0751 503-725-2594 banders@pdx.edu http://www.pdx.edu/ssw/child-and-family-studies cc: John Barnett, Search Coordinator (jgb@pdx.edu)
Opening Date	Fall 2014

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.

