Volunteer Services

Job Description: At the Red Cross, there is no such thing as a small disaster. In every single case it is the Red Cross’ mission to help people affected by disaster meet their emergency needs that include shelter, food, clothing, and health and mental health services. As a paid staff member, you will support our loyal Red Cross disaster volunteers who serve selflessly to provide a bridge of assistance until individuals and families can resume a normal life.

Our disaster volunteers are the heart and soul of our mission to respond to emergencies and provide relief to victims of disasters. They serve in a number of capacities, including Disaster Action Team Member, Disaster Assessment, Caseworker, Mass Care Feeding, Emergency Response Vehicle (ERV) Driver, Shelter Manager/Staff, Disaster Health Services and Disaster Mental Health.

We are currently seeking a Regional Preparedness Manager to work in our Houston, TX office. This is a Full Time position working 8AM-5PM, Monday – Friday including some evenings and weekends, based on need.

The Regional Preparedness Manager serves as the lead functional expert in a Red Cross Region for Individual and Community Preparedness and Resilience. Tailoring national program offerings for the Region and communities within the Region, providing technical expertise, and leading local implementation of preparedness and resilience offerings, this position works through regional employees and volunteers to build prepared and resilient communities.

Some Responsibilities:

• With the entire disaster team, prepare the communities within the Region for disasters so that people suffer less, help their neighbors more, and bounce back faster after an event.

• Within scope of function, represents the entire disaster cycle of preparedness, response, and recovery.

• Ensures American Red Cross services are available to diverse communities.

Some other responsibilities:

• Develop a plan to engage businesses in the ready rating program, manage the Home Fire Campaign, and engage new partners in preparedness.
