University of Houston
Graduate College of Social Work

JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Graduate Student Technician
Employer/Agency: The Institute for Urban Policy Research & Analysis

Job Description: To provide support in the research areas related to HIV and health disparities.

The Institute for Urban Policy Research & Analysis, in the College of Liberal Arts at The University of Texas at Austin, is a non-partisan think tank that conducts policy relevant research and analysis in the following areas: health and mental health, wealth, education, and criminal justice.

Conducting semi-structured key informant and research participant interviews. Preparing data for qualitative and/or quantitative analysis. Facilitating focus groups with a variety of research participants and on a specific research topics. Traveling to research sites as part of data collection. Producing integrative reviews of research literature.

Qualifications: Experience using STATA & MaxQda. Excellent interpersonal communication and writing skills. Ability to prioritize and meet deadlines. Organized and detail oriented. Background in social sciences, nursing, public policy, or sociology.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Qualitative interviewing. Statistical data analysis. Experience with or knowledge about health care of incarcerated populations

Salary/Hours: DOE

Employer/Agency: Institute for Urban Policy Research & Analysis
City, State, Zip: Work to be completed primarily in Houston, TX

Application Method: Interested applicants should submit a resume, contact information for three references, a writing sample, and cover letter to Ms. Marian Morris @ marian.morris@utexas.edu.

Opening Date: Immediate

If your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@sw.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you