SECTION 2.4 Mode of Dress

Employees are expected to use good judgment at all times regarding their personal appearance. Employees are expected to dress appropriately, to be neat, to wear clean clothing and to be careful of personal hygiene. Employees must adhere to special dress standards or uniforms that have been established in their unit. Flagrant violations of commonly accepted standards of cleanliness or dress may be cause for disciplinary action.

On Fridays staff is encouraged to wear red University Centers shirts.

University of Houston “Theme Days” may be observed in accordance with appropriate dress.

Logo apparel from other schools are not permitted while on duty/at work.

Student employees must adhere to the Student Employee Dress Code.

References:
University of Houston Staff Handbook
University Centers Student Employee Handbook

APPROVAL

Last revised on 8/31/2012

REVIEW AND RESPONSIBILITY
Responsible party: Student Life Policy Team
Review: Every two years on or before August 31st

APPROVAL
Dr. Noel J. Clarke, Director Business Operations