I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The University of Houston is committed to fostering a learning environment where free inquiry and expression are encouraged. The University expects that persons engaging in organized expressive activities will demonstrate civility, concern for the safety of persons and property, respect for University activities, respect for those who may disagree with their message, and compliance with University policies and applicable local, state, and federal laws. The University of Houston maintains its right to place reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions on organized expressive activities. Additionally, any activities that are unlawful or materially and substantially disruptive to the normal operations of the University including classes and University business activities will not be tolerated. The purpose of this policy is to provide for organized expressive activities to be conducted on the grounds of the University in a manner consistent with these principles. Groups or individuals engaging in disruptive activities or failing to comply with University policies and applicable local, state, and federal laws may face immediate removal from the campus and other appropriate actions by University officials and University police.

II. POLICY STATEMENT

This policy is applicable to University of Houston students, faculty, and staff who wish to engage in non-curriculum related organized expressive activities (as defined herein) at locations on University property. University of Houston students, faculty, and staff who wish to engage in an expressive activity (including literature distribution) that is not an official University activity, and does not meet this policy’s definition of an organized expressive activity (i.e., where an expressive activity is designed to attract an audience of less than 25 people), may engage in such expressive activity in the University’s common areas (e.g., University parks and sidewalks) without prior registration or approval. If an expressive activity was not designed to attract an audience of 25 or more people, but does in fact attract an audience of 25 or more people, the expressive activity may be required to be relocated to a drop-in organized expressive activity area on campus if necessary to avoid disrupting University business or classes, blocking building access, or creating traffic hazards. Non-University affiliated individuals or groups who wish to engage in an expressive activity on campus, regardless of the size of the expected attendance, are eligible to reserve Lynn Eusan Park for a fee, and without a fee, are eligible to use any of the thirteen (13) drop-in organized expressive activity areas that are provided in Section V below. Non-University affiliated individuals and groups may also use Lynn Eusan Park as a drop-in organized expressive activity area unless the area has been reserved...
(i.e., an individual or group with a reservation at Lynn Eusan Park will have exclusive use and priority over an individual or group seeking to use Lynn Eusan park as a drop-in organized expressive activity area).

This policy does not apply to official University activities. University grounds and buildings are reserved for use by University of Houston students, faculty, and staff, except as provided herein, or otherwise permitted by policies of the University. Non-permitted commercial activities (as defined herein) are not allowed. Organized expressive activities permitted under this policy do not imply official endorsement by the University. Decisions to be made by University officials under this policy will be based on the guidelines set forth in this policy and will not be based on the content or viewpoint of a proposed organized expressive activity. Groups or individuals engaged in organized expressive activities are responsible for the content of the expression. Questions regarding this policy may be directed to the Dean of Students Office, Room 252, University Center.

Individuals or groups must request the use of outdoor space through the University Center Reservations Office located in Room 210 of the University Center. Reservations are accepted on a first-come first-served basis. Each outdoor space for any single event can be reserved for a total of three days in any two-week period. The requesting group or individual must submit a completed Organized Expressive Activity Description Form ("Form") to the Dean of Students at least seven business days in advance of the proposed organized expressive activity. In completing the Form, the following information will be required (Items A-L included on the Form):

The requesting group or individual, if they so desire, may appeal the Dean of Students’ decision in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs within two business days of the decision. The Vice President for Student Affairs will render a decision within two business days of receiving an appeal. Requestors are encouraged to submit their reservation requests as early as possible to allow time after the approval process to prepare for their activities.

The Dean of Students may require an organized expressive activity to relocate if: (1) the anticipated or actual number of persons attending the event exceeds the reasonable capacity of the space intended for use and therefore materially interferes with the educational mission of the University; or (2) the activity potentially conflicts with previously scheduled activities and events. The Dean of Students may also accelerate the reservation process where there are time-sensitive issues associated with the event or other extenuating factors that support such acceleration.

V. AREAS FOR ORGANIZED EXPRESIVE ACTIVITIES ON CAMPUS
The University of Houston has designated 19 areas for outdoor organized expressive activities. These areas are indicated on the campus map titled “Areas for Organized Expressive Activities on Campus” (Addendum A). The requesting group or individual may apply for a limited exception to these size restrictions, which the University shall grant only upon a compelling demonstration to the University that the proposed structure or display will be safe, will pose no significant safety hazard, and will not unduly restrict the egress or ingress of students, faculty, or staff. Additionally, the activity must relate to the department’s mission and/or fall within the department’s regular or recurring sphere of activity per the definition of “official University event or activity.”

Departmental sponsorship of outdoor activities held on University grounds must be verified by a signature from the dean, director, or chairperson of an administrative unit of the University or a University department. Additionally, in the case of the Faculty Senate and the Staff Council, the Chair of the Faculty Senate and the President of the Staff Council must verify departmental sponsorship.
