• The Technology Annex or T1 building was the third building constructed on campus in 1941 with more than $100,000 raised by the Houston community.

• With nearly 5,000 students, the College of Technology is on the fast track for becoming one of the largest colleges on the UH Main Campus.

• Nearly half of the 50 best jobs in America are accessible through our degree programs according to CNNMoney.

• College of Technology alumni total 16,382. Of that number, 61% live in the Houston area, and 72% live in Texas.

• 1500 employers are registered in our career database TechConnect, and post an average of 600 jobs and internships annually.

• 190 enthusiastic and knowledgeable faculty teach in 23 degree programs.

• 10 industry advisory boards for construction management, engineering technology, human development and consumer sciences, and information and logistics technology programs provide guidance and support.

• 15 industry-related student organizations help build leadership skills with unmatched networking opportunities.

• 12 professional training programs offer opportunities for certification and to expand and upgrade technical skills.

• 5 research centers and institutes drive the future for health, information security, life sciences, technology literacy, and manufacturing.

• 5 degree programs are nationally accredited – proof that our graduates are among the best prepared to enter their professions.