Kristen Guiseppi, the Program Manager of the award-winning UHLC Pre-Law Pipeline Program, will present on the topic of “Is Law School Right for Me?” during UCS’s Graduate School Prep Week. If you are wondering if pre-law is a good fit for you and if you want to learn more about what it’s like to pursue law, this workshop is for you! This workshop will provide you with the information necessary to understand the basics of what it means to be a pre-law student. RSVP via Cougar Pathway.

Are you interested in applying to University of Houston Law Center (UHLC)? Throughout the year UHLC has a number of ways and times that you can visit. During your visit you will have the opportunity to learn more about the law school, the faculty, classes, students, organizations as well as take a tour of the facility. During your visit, you will not have the opportunity to have an interview or a meeting with a member of the Admissions Committee. Learn more here: http://www.law.uh.edu/admissions/visiting-uhlc.asp#infosessions

The LSAC Forum is an open-house-style recruitment event that makes it easy for students to research law schools on a more personal level. Benefits include: attend up to 7 workshops that are not available anywhere else, meet 1-on-1 with the law schools of your choice, gain insider tips from a member of the LSAT test development staff, learn the steps you can take to begin financing your legal education, resolve all your application-process questions in one place. CLASS Career Counselor, Megan Akogyeram will meet students at this event. RSVP & links to information here: bit.ly/2xbCh6v. Students must also register through LSAC.org.
