II. Objectives and Evaluation (respond on one or more separate sheets):

Call 3-0919 for a copy of "Guidelines for Requesting and Evaluating Core Courses" or visit the website at www.uh.edu/academics/corecurriculum

A. How does the proposed course meet the appropriate Exemplary Educational Objectives?

The objective of the humanities in a World Cinema core curriculum course is to expand students' knowledge in relation to human groups and cultures, especially in relation to behaviors, ideas, and values expressed in fiction/visual works of non-Western imagination. Through study of Latin-American, African, Asian, Middle-Eastern films (including European, particularly from the Mediterranean and Eastern Europe), students will engage in critical analysis, form aesthetic judgments, and develop an appreciation of the arts and humanities as fundamental to the health and survival of any society. Specific goals include the following
1. To demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
2. To understand those works as expressions of individual and group values within an historical and social context.
3. To respond critically to works in the arts and humanities.
4. To develop an appreciation for the aesthetic principles that guide or govern the humanities and arts.
5. To demonstrate knowledge of the influence of cinema from all over the world on intercultural experiences.
6. To achieve a solid introduction to understanding of the overall field, and to produce written work of quality corresponding to the level of the course involved.

B. Specify the processes and procedures for evaluating course effectiveness in regard to its goals.

Students will receive guidance in analyzing cinematic works in relation to social contexts, as well as in broader world contexts. They will participate in the comparative analysis of films and the evaluation of analyses by their peers and professionals, so they develop criteria for considering their own work. They will be asked to produce drafts and help evaluate each other’s work in the light of the overall field and its contexts this leading to their final draft paper. The final paper will indicate their level of preparedness for more advanced work in this field.

Evaluation of Students:
- Attendance and Participation: 10%
- 1000 word Film Analyses: 30%
- 1000 word Film Analyses: 30%
- Final paper (1000 words minimum) 30%

Student Evaluation of Course:
Students will be given a questionnaire about course midway in the semester and at semester’s end. The questionnaire will raise questions about reading assignments, requirements, classroom procedures, etc. Students will also evaluate the course at the end of the semester using the standard evaluation form.

C. Delineate how these evaluation results will be used to improve the course.

On the basis of the midterm student evaluation of the course, the professor may consider possible adjustments in the syllabus before semester’s end. No syllabus change can raise the requirements or level of difficulty for the course, or make it less likely for the student to succeed. The final standard evaluation will be used for rethinking the course for the next time it is given.

SVP. Effective 9/20/05. Replaces all previous forms, which may no longer be used.
