Course description:

Like the previous course in the aural skills sequence, this is a course in developing your skills in listening to and understanding music. Your acquisition of these skills will continue to be measured in two ways: (1) your ability to vocally reproduce musical patterns and melodies, and (2) your ability to accurately transcribe music upon hearing it. The former is generally known as "sight singing" (although it does not always involve singing music on sight); the latter is known as dictation. You will be tested in each of these areas in class (by singing in class and taking dictation quizzes) and on exams (a midterm and a final). Everyone will be heard singing in class on a regular basis. Keep in mind: this is not a course in singing; we will not discuss vocal technique in any meaningful detail, and you will not be evaluated on your vocal quality.

Prerequisites:

- You must have taken the sightsinging/ear-training placement exam and received permission to enroll in the course, or you must have received a continuing grade (C- or better) in Sightsinging and Ear Training I.

- You must be enrolled concurrently in Theory II (MUSI 1311).

Required materials: all available in the University Bookstore, 126 University Center (713.743.0923)

- Benjamin, Horvit, and Nelson. Music for Sight Singing. 3rd edition (2003).
- Benjamin, Horvit, and Nelson. Music for Ear Training: CD-ROM and Workbook (2001).
- Pencils, erasers, and music manuscript paper. [A packet of 8.5 x 11 manuscript paper in various formats is available at the University Copy Center (in the University Center). Use these as masters from which you may make as many photocopies as needed. Ask for packet no. 42, or ask for it under my name and course number MUSI 1311.] If you use a notebook for class notes, it may be useful to have a notebook of manuscript paper.

Attendance:

- This is a course in skill development, and thus your regular attendance is crucial. You are allowed four absences for any reason. Beyond this number, each absence will lower your grade one level (e.g., an A becomes an A-, a C+ becomes a C, etc.).

Evaluation:

- You will receive grades for dictation (homework assignments, quizzes, a midterm, and a final) and singing (hearings in class, a midterm, and a final).
- Singing grades: Everyone will be heard singing in class once per week, during most weeks in the semester. You are responsible for learning and coming to class prepared to sing any assigned material. When called upon in class to sing, you must sing. If you do not sing, you will receive an F for that hearing. After you sing, your instructor will assign you a grade of either A (you were prepared and sang the assignment well), B (you were prepared and sang most of the assignment well, with some minor problems), or F (you were unprepared or unable to sing the assignment at an acceptable level of quality). If you receive an F, you have the option to make up that hearing within one week for a better grade. Make an appointment to see your instructor; when you appear for the appointment, the instructor may ask you to sing any material assigned for the day on which you received an F. NOTE WELL: you will NOT necessarily be asked to sing exactly the same material that you sang the first time. Any assignment made up in this manner will receive a grade one full letter lower than what it otherwise would have been (e.g., A becomes B, B- becomes C-, etc.).
- Reporting of grades: Dictation homework assignments and quizzes will be returned to you with grades. You may ask your instructor to see your singing grades at any time.
- Computation of final grade:
 - Singing: 50% (in-class singing 25%; midterm exam 12.5%; final exam 12.5%).
 - Dictation: 50%.
- Grade distribution will be according to the standard scale of percentages, as follows:
 - A: 92.5–100
 - A-: 90.0–92.5
 - B+: 87.5–90.0
 - B: 82.5–87.5
 - B-: 80.0–82.5
 - C+: 77.5–80.0

- C: 72.5–77.5
- C-: 70.0–72.5
- D+ 67.5–70.0
- D: 62.5–67.5
- D-: 60.0–62.5
- F: below 60.0

- IMPORTANT: School of Music policy dictates that a grade of C- or better is necessary to continue in the sightsinging/ear-training course sequence. Any grade below C- will be considered non-continuing, and the student will not be permitted to enroll in the next sightsinging/ear-training course.

Assignments, quizzes, and exams:

- Dictation homework assignments provide a means for you to practice taking dictation and a means for your instructor to evaluate your progress and proficiency with the skill.
Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date indicated. Late assignments will not be accepted without a written, valid excuse. If you cannot provide such an excuse, your grade for the missed assignment will be 0. Note that you are responsible for the work assigned in class even if you are absent—you should check the schedule online to see what material was assigned, and you should obtain notes on the relevant material from a classmate.
- Dictation quizzes provide a means for your instructor to test your mastery of the skill and are given in class on a regular basis. Quiz dates are posted on the course schedule. Make-up quizzes will not be given: if you miss a quiz you must provide a written, valid excuse. If you cannot do so your quiz grade will be 0; if your absence is excused, the quiz you missed will not be included when your final course grade is computed.
- Dictation and singing exams also provide a means for your instructor to test your mastery of the skills. Exam dates are posted on the course schedule. Make-up exams will only be given if you provide a written, valid excuse for why you missed the exam. If you cannot do so your grade for a missed exam will be 0.

Academic dishonesty:

You are expected to do your own work on all assignments, quizzes, and exams unless instructed differently; any work you hand in at any time should be your own unless you are assigned to do otherwise. Problems with academic dishonesty will be handled according to the procedures outlined in the undergraduate student handbook and in the undergraduate course catalog. Please note that the mere suspicion of academic dishonesty is enough to initiate official action; please do not put yourself in the position of having to deal with this kind of situation.

Disabilities:

If you have a disability that affects your capacity to complete assignments, quizzes, or exams in a timely manner, please inform your instructor at the beginning of the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made. You will need to document your disability with the UH Center for Students with Disabilities \(CSD\): 100 CSD Building (click here to get a map), 713.743.5400. The CSD will provide information on your disability to the instructor, and the instructor and student will work out a mutually agreeable arrangement (based on recommendations provided by the CSD) for how to accommodate the disability.

Other information:

- It should be clear that in order to maintain a productive environment in class students are expected to behave with courtesy and respect toward their instructor and their classmates. Students will be dismissed from class if they are found to be creating excessive disruptions. This includes disruptions from cell phones: please turn them off.
 - Last day to drop or withdraw without receiving a grade: 02/17.
 - Last day to drop or withdraw from the course: 04/06.
