

Homework 5. October 7—due October 14.

Use the panel data program that I have posted. Interpret the regression results (excess sensitivity and excess smoothness). Try and add lagged consumption and more lags of disposable income and interpret the results. Try (in a separate regression) to include state fixed effects—are the results sensitive to this?