

ILIAD 10 AND THE POETICS OF AMBUSH
A Multitext Edition with Essays and Commentary

This edition, commentary, and accompanying essays focus on the tenth book of the Iliad, which has been doubted, ignored, and even scorned. Dué and Ebbott use approaches based on oral traditional poetics to illuminate many of the interpretive questions that strictly literary approaches find unsolvable. The introductory essays explain their textual and interpretive approaches and explicate the ambush theme within the whole Greek epic tradition. The critical texts (presented as a sequence of witnesses, including the tenth-century Venetus A manuscript and select papyri) present and discuss the individual witnesses and the variations they offer. The commentary demonstrates how the unconventional Iliad 10 shares in the oral traditional nature of the whole epic, even though its poetics are specific to its nocturnal ambush plot.

Casey Dué is Associate Professor and Director of Classical Studies, Department of Modern and Classical Languages, University of Houston

Mary Ebbott is Associate Professor of Classics, College of the Holy Cross

Cover image: Achilles and Polyxena at the fountain. Drawing after a white-ground lekythos in the Toledo(OH) Museum of Art (1947.62)

ILIAD 10 AND THE POETICS OF AMBUSH
A Multitext Edition with Essays and Commentary

Literary Criticism: Ancient & Classical

ISBN 978-0-674-03559-1

*Casey Dué
and Mary Ebbott*

A MULTITEXT EDITION
WITH ESSAYS AND COMMENTARY

Casey Dué and Mary Ebbott