The Food Service Advisory Committee (FSAC) is searching for a student to serve as at-large member for a one-year term during 2011 to 2012. All currently enrolled UH students are eligible to apply. The twelve (12) member committee includes students, faculty and staff.

This committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Executive Vice President for Administration and Finance regarding the University’s retail and residential food/beverage and vending programs, including:

1. serving as a conduit for the exchange of information and ideas between the University community, the food service provider(s) and University management;
2. providing advice and assistance regarding matters pertaining to food service locations, menu selections, service hours, food quality and types of services offered;
3. providing advice and assistance on matters involving food service vendor contracts; and
4. providing advice and assistance on other related matters as requested by University management.

The committee meets monthly for approximately two (2) hours. The first meeting for the 2010-2011 will be scheduled for February 4, 2011.

Applications will be accepted until 5pm on January 28, 2011.

Students can complete their application online at www.uh.edu/universityservices or submit it in person to the Cougar Card Office located in the Welcome Center.

Questions about the Food Service Advisory Committee or the application process should be directed to University Services Constituent Relations Coordinator: Jonas Chin, jrchin@uh.edu 832-842-9107
