Discover UH – the Vision, the Culture, the Pride

Discover UH – the Vision, the Culture, the Pride is a new five – week course designed to help managers, supervisors and administrators better understand the complexity of the University’s structure and the relationships of the multiple components. Participants will hear from multiple presenters from the Board of Regents, the President’s office, and the divisions on the behind the scenes happenings that make this University work. Join us in Discover UH – a journey to learn more about where you work.

This series occurs every Friday, from 9:00 — 12:00, September 10 — October 8, for more information or to apply to participate click http://www.uh.edu/hr/training/DiscoverUH.htm or contact, Sandy Coltharp at scoltharp@uh.edu or 713.743.4143.
