Visit the admissions website at www.uh.edu/admissions for more information on applying to the University of Houston.

Visit www.uh.edu/financial for more information regarding financial aid at the University of Houston.

General questions about housing and roommate assignments can be directed to Student Housing & Residential Life at housing@uh.edu or our website:

www.housing.uh.edu

Email ELG questions to Lin Crowson at ycrowson@central.uh.edu
Engaged Learning Groups at the University of Houston

Student Housing & Residential Life offers a diverse housing experience known as Engaged Learning Groups (ELG). ELGs are floors or wings of residence halls where students who share common interests or majors may choose to live.

The following options are available for selection through the MyUH housing application:

- Honors College Housing: Cougar Village I, Cougar Place
- Medicine & Society: Cougar Place
- Engineering: Cougar Village II, Moody Tower North
- Natural Sciences Majors: Cougar Village I
- NSM Pre-Health Professions: Cougar Village II
- Cougars in Recovery: Cougar Place
- Second Year Experience: Cougar Place
- Hotel and Restaurant Management: Cougar Village I
- Business: Cougar Village II, Moody Tower South
- Theatre: Cougar Village II
- UHin4: Cougar Village II
- Gender Diversity: Quadrangle
- Chinese Language & Culture: Cougar Village I
- Biology in the 21st Century: Cougar Village II

by invitation only, visit www.uh.edu/honors

† For placement in these ELGs, please contact Lin Crowson at ycrowson@central.uh.edu

What are the benefits of joining an ELG?

- Get on the fast track to making friends by living with others who share your interest or major
- Experience learning in and outside of the classroom
- Gain a built-in network of classmates, upperclassmen, graduate assistants and resident advisors who can help you adjust to college life
- Network with members of other ELGs through social gatherings
- Give back to the community by participating in service events

What are the responsibilities of ELG members?

- Attend ELG meetings, study groups and lunches with your ELG advisor
- Participate in extracurricular activities with members of your ELG
- Be a vital and engaged member of your ELG and the University of Houston

Joining is easy and part of the University of Houston's housing application process. It will be available to you when you apply for housing through MyUH.

- Select the community you would like to join from the list
- Choose from the designated theme options
- If you have already signed up for housing and are interested in UHin4, Gender Diversity, Chinese Language & Culture or Biology in the 21st Century, please contact Lin Crowson at ycrowson@central.uh.edu

Questions about ELGs can be directed to Lin Crowson at ycrowson@central.uh.edu.

New communities are always under development. Check the Student Housing & Residential Life website for the most up-to-date options.