

The Department of Economics is pleased to host a talk featuring well-known Harvard economist,

N. Gregory Mankiw

Today's Economy and Its Discontents

During the recent presidential election, many voters expressed dissatisfaction with how the economy is doing. What are those trends? What is causing them? How should policymakers respond?

Date: Thursday, February 23rd

Time: 10 am-11 am

Location: Student Center South Theater, room 103/203

In addition to his teaching, research, and writing, Professor Mankiw has been a research associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research, an adviser to the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston and the Congressional Budget Office. From 2003 to 2005 he served as Chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.
